

I then went down stairs and asked Mr. Bunday if he could identify the soldiers who had been at the house, when Gnr Sullivan, accused, reported to me at mid night he was identified by Mr Bunday as the soldier who had been in the house twice that evening, looking for me, I have reason to believe that Gnr Sullivan, accused, ^{when the rum was in my room as at 1800 hrs that date I gave out a rum issue} ~~to the parade~~ ^{Gnr Sullivan, accused, was} duty during the parade, and, ^{missing his rum} came to my room, and asked for his rum ^{and} and gave it to him from a ^{jug} ~~jug~~ in my room, this was the same jug that was missing at ~~the 2100 hrs~~ I had received the jug of rum from the Bty Comd for issue to the Bty. It was army issued rum and in a 160 oz container. The last time I saw the jug of rum in question was at 1900 hrs 17 Feb 45 and at that time it was in my room. I discussed the jug of rum in question to be missing at 2100 hrs. On the evening of 17 Feb I saw Gnr Sullivan twice; when I gave him his rum issue and again at 2400 hrs. He accused, when I spoke to him at 2400 hrs. He accused, I ordered him to his quarters he refused to go and insisted ~~that~~ that something was wrong and that he wanted to know what it was, I put Gnr Sullivan out of my bullets.
