

PREFACE.

The Carswell Company, Limited, Publishers of this Catalogue, can promptly fill orders for complete sets of all Law Reports and Law Periodicals published in the Dominion of Canada from the earliest dates to the present time. As they are the owners of an immense stock, having reprinted 110 separate volumes of the Earlier Reports—including all Upper Canada Reports, 1823 to 1867, 73 volumes—and carrying about 4,000 copies of the later 125 different volumes of Reports published subsequently in Ontario.

They have published or purchased the entire stock of 125 other separate volumes of Reports in the various Provinces of the Dominion, beside carrying in stock copies of all the various volumes of Reports and Law Periodicals, collected during the past thirty years.

They have also an immense stock of the Statutes of every Legislature in the Dominion of Canada, including all the Statutes that have been published in the Dominion of Canada, the old Province of Canada and of Manitoba.

Nowhere else can be found a tenth of the collection of Canadian Law Reports and Statutes.

They also have on their shelves thousands of volumes of English Law Reports; and all the legal text books of practical value published in Canada, beside a full line of London legal text books, Digest of English Case Law, Encyclopædia of the Laws of England, &c., &c.

All their catalogues are free to buyers of law books.
