

SONG

Out of the sky, the storm,
    And out of the storm, the rain:
And out of the joy and the thrill of life
    And out of its peace, comes pain!

Out of the dusk, the night,
    And out of the night, the dew:
And out of the glare and the heat of life
    And out of its grief, come you!

Out of the sea, the dawn,
    And out of the dawn, the sun:
And out of the depths of life, comes love
    And I love you, dear one!
