

awaiting the moment when my Heavenly Father shall call me home, and occupying the time which He may give me in this world, mainly with spiritual, rather than with worldly affairs.