DAVID JAMES BURRELL, D. D.

The Sermon : Its Construction and Delivery

James Sprunt Lectures. 8vo, cloth, net $1.50.

"The whole effect of the book is a stimulus to faith. Ministers and theological students will be tremendously invigorated as they read these lectures; they will surely get a fresh taste for the work of proclaiming the Gospel. Incisive, trenchant and epigrammatic statements, of the unforgettable kind, abound. Apt quotations and telling illustrations are constantly in evidence. And yet the book impresses us as a most original and in many respects a unique treatment of this much discussed subject."—Christian Intelligencer.
