

2. To assist them in procuring the necessary implements of husbandry, and teach them how to use them ;

3. To recommend, and enable them to procure, the best kinds of grain and grass seeds ;

4. To encourage the use of horses in Agricultural operations, and the breeding of that kind of horses which is best adapted to that purpose ;

5. To improve the breed of Bulls, Cows and Swine, and to encourage the increase of Sheep, and the best method of feeding them for the market ;

6. To encourage the making of Butter, the rearing of all kinds of Poultry, and the introduction of the best kinds of summer and winter Vegetables ;

7. To make every exertion to get such markets established in the County, and especially in Lunenburg the county town, as may insure to the Farmers a ready sale of their produce, and a regular supply of provisions to the inhabitants in general.

8. To pay particular attention to the high-ways ; that an easy communication may be kept up at all times between Lunenburg, and the various settlements throughout the county.

ART. 11. The different branches of Rural Economy, described in the foregoing article, shall be placed under the management of a Board of Directors, to consist of the following officers, viz :—A President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Committee to consist of twelve members ; which number may be increased to eighteen, should the Townships of Chester and New-Dublin be inclined to join the Society. The whole of these officers shall be chosen by a majority of votes at a general meeting of the Society, to be held on the Second Tuesday of January, yearly, and shall continue in office one year, in the following manner ; that is to say, the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, shall be elected every year, but may be re-elected for another year, if the Society shall think it proper. One third of the Committee shall go out of office yearly by rotation ; namely, the four that stand highest on the Roll ; and an equal number shall be chosen in their room, and placed at the bottom of the list. Should the Townships of Chester and New-Dublin join the Society, and the number of the Committee be increased to eighteen, those belonging to the township of Lunenburg, shall not be less than twelve as aforesaid, to insure the regular dispatch of business.