The thirty-ninth Session of the Medical Faculty of McGill University will be opened on Tuesday 3rd October, 1871, with a general Introductory Lecture, at 11 A.M. The regular Lectures will commence on Wednesday the 4th Oct., at the hours specified in the time table, and will be continued during the six months following.

The Faculty have much pleasure in announcing that the Governors of the University have undertaken, at a large expense, the erection of a new and commodious building for the use of the Medical Department. The building is now in progress; and, while its appearance and surroundings will be pleasing to the eye, its position, size and internal arrangements will be such as to conduce to the health, comfort and progress both of Students and teachers.

The class-tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the Universities and Colleges of Great Britain and Ireland, the Medical Boards of the Army and Navy, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

To meet the circumstances of General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery." This designation is also appropriate, as it agrees with the general nature and character of the previous curriculum demanded of the candidates for this double rank, as is
