

on Hambly avenue.—C. F. Wagner, architect, has called for tenders for a store on Queen street for W. J. Snell, cost $5,000.—Mr. Coleman will build four houses on Hambly avenue.—J. A. Curran will also build on same street.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—The plans of H. Simpson, architect, Toronto, for two public school buildings here have been accepted by the Board.—T. Hanley, architect, has taken tenders for erection of a residence for H. Finger.—Plans are being prepared for a new office block, corner Cumberland and Lincoln streets, for G. Mooring.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—J. Nicholson will erect a brick dwelling on Erie ave., cost $1,800.—P. H. Secord will erect a brick dwelling on Victoria street, cost $1,350.—Some Hamilton and local capitalists are seeking a site on Colborne street for a new theatre.—The G. T. R. will soon build a large round house here.

FREDERICTON, N. B.—C. H. La Billois, Department of Public Works, will receive tenders up to May 7th for building masonry sub-structure and approaches of Grave Yard Bridge in Albert County, N. B. Plans with above named and with E. Lynds, Hopewell Cape; D. W. Stewart, Riverside; C. J. Osam, Hillsboro and J. Ryan, Moncton.

HAMILTON, ONT.—S. B. Cunningham, manager of the Hamilton Brewing Association, will build a residence corner of Ray and King streets.—G. W. Robinson has recently purchased a business property which he will have enlarged into a large store building.—St. Patrick's church will build a new presbytery, corner of main street and Victoria avenue.

PETERBORO, ONT.—W. G. Morrow, Secretary Board of Education, will receive tenders up to April 30th for erection of public school building. Plans with W. Blackwell architect.—The plans of J. Belcher, architect, for the County House of Refuge, will be accepted subject to some alterations. It will be three-storey, brick, 75 x 40 feet.

CHATHAM, ONT.—Building permits have been granted to A. Byram for brick dwelling on Park street, cost $3,100, and to G. A. Everitt for dwelling on Park street.—The Medical Health Board have an option on a site for the proposed Isolation hospital.—Tenders will be received up to April 28th by W. N. Morley for heating and ventilating the McKeough school.

EDMONTON, ALTA.—The D. R. Fraser Company are preparing to erect a large office building, corner of Nanaimo and Rice streets.—H. Magoon has prepared plans for the following: Residence for Peter Butchard, cost $15,000; business block on Jasper avenue for A. Christall, cost $15,000; German Lutheran church, corner Pickard and Kinistino streets; residence for O. Bush on McKay street; residence for Dr. McCauley on Eighth street; residence on Eighth street for A. W. Ormsby, and residence for Wm. Campbell, cost $3,500.

KINGSTON, ONT.—Col. Wetherbee, architect of the Militia Department, has been in the city in connection with the improvements to the Military barracks.—A by-law will be voted on for improvement of city buildings and registry office, cost $6,000.—It is said that a site has been purchased in Barriefield on which a fine club building will be erected.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—The following building permits have been granted: Irving Wood, a two-storey brick dwelling on Willoughby avenue, $2,000; J. Denbeigh & Son, six two-storey brick dwellings on Louisa street, $1,800 each; J. A. Hawson, a two-storey brick house on Clendenan avenue, $3,000; S. E. Drewitt, a two-storey brick dwelling on Victoria street, $1,900; D. McGill, a two-storey brick house on Quebec avenue to cost about $1,800; J. Williams, a two-storey and attic brick house on Clendenan avenue, $1,800.

MONTREAL, QUE.—The Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame will erect a three-storey stone and brick school building on Dufresne street, cost $20,000.—Dr. J. S. Girard will build a residence on Dorchester street, cost $7,000.—W. A. Desbarats will erect a five-storey building, corner Beaver Hall Hill and Lagachetiere streets, cost $50,000.—The Market Committee wish to build a shelter at Bonsecours Market, cost $15,000. They also wish to improve the Eastern cattle market, at cost of $60,000.—The Roman Catholic School Commissioners will build a boys' school on Fullam street, cost $45,000.—W. Theley will build an apartment house on Oxenden avenue, cost $20,000.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Mark Fisher Sons & Co., woolen merchants, Montreal, will build a warehouse on Cordova street this spring.—The Liberal club are soliciting subscriptions for building club rooms, cost $20,000.—The Board of Works have decided to have asphalt pavement laid on Georgia street, cost over $60,000 and a block pavement on Pender street, cost $57,230.—The Gurney Foundry Co., of Toronto, have purchased a site adjoining the property of Dominic Burns for establishment of a branch business.—W. H. Armstrong will build a factory between Heatley and Carl avenue, for manufacture of vitrified brick.—An Alberta syndicate have purchased a site near Dunleavy avenue on which a large industrial house will be built.

STRATFORD, ONT.—Engineer Parsons has prepared plans for proposed subway for Nelson street.—The following building permits have been issued: D. and F. Smith, brick veneer on Erie street, brick residence on Worsley street; two brick residences on Albert street; John McCaffery, two brick houses on Queen street; Fred Kuch, brick veneer house on Water street; D. Nichol, brick veneer house on Hibernia street; Joseph H. Beaumont, brick veneer house on Birmingham street; John Davis, two brick veneer houses on Queen street; Edgar Stone, residence on William street; H. T. Cook, residence on Caledonia street; George E. Kalbfleisch, residence on Gore street; D. W. Brown, residence on Railway avenue; W. H. Schenck, brick veneer residence on Water street; Chris. Meihm, residence on Romeo street; Dr. E. H. Eidt, brick veneer factory on Wellington street; D. McGregor, two residences on Brunswick street.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—James Follis is having plans prepared for a four story hotel, corner Main street and Henry avenue.—M. Romesblat, 651 Main street, will erect a five story brick and stone building this summer.—V. W. Horwood, architect, has taken tenders for erection of a residence corner of Edmonton and Assiniboine avenues for C. S. Riley.—J. H. Cadham, architect, has taken tenders for erection of a six story factory on Lombard avenue for the Kemp Manufacturing Co.—J. H. G. Russell, architect, has taken tenders for erection of a brick and stone warehouse for Porter & Co.—A site has been purchased, corner Arlington and Notre Dame avenues, for a new Roman Catholic church building.—The School Board have passed a by-law for the issue of $200,000 debentures for school sites and buildings.—D. Smith, architect, is preparing plans for the foundation of a new elevator for the Canada Paint Co. He has prepared plans for extensive additions to the residence of A. Dunlop at 350 Young street.—G. Brown, architect, has invited tenders for erection of a four story addition to the Morris block on Main street.—McCormack & Ludlow will erect an apartment block on River avenue, Fort Rouge.—Bishop Serafin has had plans prepared for a new church to replace the present one, corner Derby street and Stella avenue.—The congregation of All Saints' church are considering the erection of a new building.—Sherwood & Kenrick, architects, have prepared plans for chancel to be added to St. John's church, cut stone and brick, 56 x 40 feet, cost $20,000.—Darling & Pearson, architects, will receive tenders up to April 28th for erection of a brick house on Roslyn place for F. W. Adams.—Blair & Northwood, architects, have taken tenders for erection of a seven story office and warehouse on Princess street for T. Ryan & Co., also for a house

MANHOLE COVERS and FRAMES

We have several designs and this shows the article in most general use. It is Heavy and Substantial, made from good materials and will stand any strain to which it may be subjected.

Will be pleased to furnish particulars of these, together with

CATCH BASINS, HYDRANTS, CURB BOXES, ETC.

The R. McDOUGALL COMPANY, Limited,
GALT, CANADA.