

STOCK GOSSIP.

In writing to advertisers, please mention the Farmer's Advocate.

Mr. A. Elliot, Pond Mills, writes "That his Bronze turkeys are heavy birds, and feels confident he can fill orders satisfactorily." See his advt.

R. B. McMullen, Goldsmith, Ont., has a new advertisement in this issue. He breeds Poland-Chinas, and we call our readers' attention to his stock. See his advt.

Messrs. J. & G. Taylor, Rockwood, have made an important change in their advertisement. Their herd of Shorthorns will command the attention of all S. H. breeders. See his advt.

W. C. Shearer, Bright, says:—"Our stock of Jerseys are all into winter quarters now, in fine condition, and the fresh calved cows are milking very heavily. Nearly all the heifer calves that are ready to ship are sold at good prices. In this issue will be found my advertisement of a very fine and richly bred bull. This bull is a rare one to cross with common cows; their get should be very valuable, either for a creamery or in supplying milk to a cheese factory where the Babcock Tester is used. The price is so low that any farmer who is ready to raise grade Jerseys, as business cows, should not miss getting him."

W. A. Reburn, St. Anne de Bellevue, writes:—"The bulls I am now offering are, without exception, the grandest bred bulls that I have ever raised. I used Jolie's Pogs on some of the young stock, and sold a pair of heifers sired by him for $550. One of Jolie Boy of St. A. sons is at the head of a large herd in Ohio, U. S. A. Last spring I was offered $100 and $125 for some of these bulls, the parties buying others from me, but would rather have had these. I have decided to sacrifice them, as I want room badly. The sire of four of them—Romeo of St. L. (for a great number of years my herd bull), was a double grandson of Stoke Pogis 3rd; he was almost full brother to Mary Anne of St. L., having 96% same blood elements as she had; his grand dams were Jolie of St. Lambert and Hebe of St. Lambert, two of the famous St. L. cows. Gipsev Hugo is a daughter of Hebe of St. Lambert and Juliet of St. A.; dam of the last two is by Romeo of St. Lambert, and out of a daughter of Lady Fawn of St. Annes—16 lbs. 12 ozs. of butter at 15 years. Juliet is a great prize-taker, and milks 45 lbs. at flush."
