

LIVE STOCK MARKETS. TORONTO.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were light, not more than 50 carloads composed of 700 cattle, 745 hogs, 550 sheep and lambs, and 300 calves.

The quality of fat cattle was about of the same class as for the past two weeks.

Trade was inclined to be strong at a little firmer quotations in the different classes, owing to light run.

Exporters—Prices for export steers ranged from $6 to $6.40; bulls, $4.90 to $5.25 per cwt.

Butchers—Choice picked lots sold at $5.75 to $5.90; loads of good at $5.50 to $5.75; medium, $5.20 to $5.40; common, $4.75 to $5.10; cows, $2.50 to $5 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers—Not many feeders and stockers are being offered and prices are quoted as unchanged.

Milkers and Springers—Trade in milkers and springers was inclined to be quiet. About 25 cows sold at $30 to $55 each.

Veal Calves—The market for veal calves was steady at $3 to $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Export ewes sold at $4 to $4.60; rams, $3.50 to $4 per cwt; spring lambs, $4 to $6 each.

Hogs—Mr. Harris reports hogs unchanged at last week's quotations, as follows: Selects, fed and watered, $6; lights, at $5.75 per cwt.

THE FISH PEDDLER.

He who would live a delightful semi-vagrant life, and breathe plenty of ozone and who would wish to visit the beauty spots scattered so thickly, but so quaintly hidden throughout the country, should become a fish peddler for the summer. The outlay is small and very satisfying. You need a horse—a ten-dollar horse, and reluctantly gives half the road to an automobile; a horse that won't shy at the cars—and that's all the motive power you require. His keep won't cost you anything; in the heat of the day, while you take a sun bath on a grassy slope or a sleep among the raspberry bushes and burdocks in a shady fence corner, he will browse luxuriantly by the roadside. Same at night; when under your cart, wrapped in your blanket you lie down on your rubber sheet, the old horse will feed till morning on the best in the land. I spoke about a cart. You want a covered cart with a padlocked door; a box big enough to hold, say fifty 25c whitefish, and room allowance for a chunk of ice. When I speak of 25c whitefish I mean the retail price—you won't get them for about 10c each wholesale, perhaps less; anyway, you won't pay much more; so you can figure out the profit on your load for yourself.

You will have a lovely summer of it, and you will be a new man ere the snow flies again. Driving through the quiet sidelings and concessions, through the little, drowsy, soundless hamlets and villages, loitering by cool woods, on the banks of rippling streams, on windy hill-tops, in breezy open places, watching the changing skies and fields and waters, indolent, happy, independent, always hungry, ever ready to sleep, and making a little money on the side just the same. The farmers' wives will learn the music of your trumpet as you sound it from the knoll, or from the edge of the echoing wood, and they, and the dogs, and the children will be down at the gate to welcome you. She will dicker for half an hour and turn over every fish before she parts with her twenty-five cents. You will get to know and love these people; they will get to know and love you, if you are the right kind of a man.—The Khan.

DAD'S IGNORANCE.

Most every day when I'm at school
The teacher tells us things
About the birds and animals
And the presidents and kings,
And then at night when I ask dad
If what she says is so,
He reads his paper right along
And says, "Oh, I don't know!"
One day she told us that the world
Is round, just like a ball,
And that there's nothing down below
It's standing on at all.
I asked dad if she told the truth,
He read his paper through,
And put his feet upon a chair
And said—"Oh, I don't know!"
And once the teacher said the sky
Ain't heaven's floor, and tried
To make us think no angels walk
Along the other side,
And that night I asked my dad,
And all he said was—"Oh,
Don't bother me about such things,
I'm busy—I dunno!"
I used to kind of think somehow
That my dad knew a lot—
But that was wrong, or if he did
I guess that he's forgot.
Since I've got started into school,
Most every day or so
I hear about a hundred things
Dad doesn't seem to know.

THE STRENUOUS LIFE

PULLS SO HARD ON THE TUMMACH IT
MUST HAVE HELP.

The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country makes stomach troubles. Five people suffer to-day where one did ten years ago with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms of indigestion. All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means at least two out of three in Mildmay and other towns should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Nothing else is as safe, yet effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Mi-o-na.

So reliable is Mi-o-na that J. Coates, with every 50 cent box he sells, gives a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy cures.

To stop any pain, anywhere in 20 minutes, simply take just one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain tablets. Pain means congestion—blood pressure—that's all. Dr. Shoop's Headache—or Pink Pain Tablets—will quickly coax blood pressure away from pain centres. After that, pain is gone. Headache, Neuralgia, painful periods with women, etc., get instant help. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by J. Coates.

THE UNPRODIGAL SON.

Otto E. Schaar, president of a club of New York waiters, said the other day of a parsimonious young man:

"He resembles a chap they tell about in Bucks County.

"This chap lived alone with his father. On the old man's death he would inherit the farm.

"Well, finally, the old man took sick. His end drew near. The son sat up with him a night or two, expecting him to pass away; but he lingered on.

"On the fifth or sixth night the son, instead of sitting up, put a lamp, turned very, very low, on a table by the bed, and went off to his own room with the caution:

"When you feel that it is all over with you, father, don't forget to blow out the lamp."

AS HIS NEIGHBORS SEE HIM.

If he is poor, he is a bad manager. If he is rich, he is dishonest.

If he needs credit, he can't get it. If he is prosperous, everyone wants to do him a favor.

If he's in politics, it's for pie. If he's out of politics, you can't place him, and he's no good for his country.

If he doesn't give to charity, he's a stingy cuss. If he does, it's for show.

If he is actively religious, he is a hypocrite. If he takes no interest in religion he's a hardened sinner.

If he shows affection, he's a soft specimen. If he seems to care for no one, he is cold-blooded.

If he dies young, there was a great future ahead of him. If he lives to an old age, he has missed his calling.
