they will reside at Hampden. Boy's Tragic Death. The deepest sympathy of their many friends here goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Schneider of and Mrs. Gideon Schneider Moorefield, in the tragic death their third son, Arthur, which took place last Friday morning. For some months, it is said, Arthur has morose spells, but as he got along well with all the others home, and had nothing to worry about, his condition did not cause much concern. Last Friday forenoon, however, he came in from the field, and securing a little later in a dying condition. Arthur was a bright, amiable boy, in his eighteenth year, took a deep interest in the affairs of the farm, and was a dutiful son and brother. He was born in Carrick and will be remembered by many here. His remains were brought to Milonay on the content of the brank to let the water down another course. He denied putting up his fists to Schmidt, and said he merely made a gesture with his open hand while talking to complainant about the damage done by the water. He wasn't a bit angry and din't use any rough language to Schmidt, and said John Schneider and F. Scheifle were mistaken in their evidence. The magistrate imposed a fine of $1.00 and costs.

Sunday afternoon, and brother. His remains were brought to Milonay on the sunday afternoon, and brother. remembered by many here. His remains were brought to Mildmay on Sunday afternoon, and interred in Sunday arternoon, and interred in the Evangelical cemetery, where a large number of friends assembled to attend the funeral. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Taylor of Moorefield, formerly of Mildmay.
