ventive measure to $25.00

T DRESSES Wool Poplin. n and designstyles. From $16.50

Phone 446

manually and

BRANTFORD DAILY COURIER

ONE CENT

German Submarine Reported Sunk To-day---Italians Clamoring For Entrance Into War---Big Action is Raging Around Ypres Region

Casualties are Coming in That Indicate Heavy Fighting-Pte. Geo. Kirby is Wounded.

nveyed to Mrs. E. Harrington who sides at the Farringdon church that son, Pte. Earnest Harrington was lisabled severely, and would probbly be injured for life. The letter as from a nurse and is given beow. It would appear that Harrington s suffering from a bad series of wounds in the region of his spine, nd wounds of this description are always reckoned serious. However, his doctors hope to pull him round, and it may be that with good care and attention the wounds will not enirely incapacitate this brave young

Every sympathy is extended to the their goest wishes, will hope for more siding here.

ARTHUR BISHOP, 2nd CORPORAL W. BLACKER, PTE. GEO. KIRBY, 133 Sydenham

PTE. W. KEITHLEY, 147 Clarce street, (unofficially reported to Reithley is reported by mail, reputation:

"We are in a very dangerous place now," he writes under date of April on the Lange- which the Lange-days that mark the spring cam-

Fourth Battalion Casualties To-day

Wounded-Pte. E. Hilborn, Brantford, Ont.; Pte. Gordon Sargeant (formerly 9th), Van-Died of Wounds-Pte. George Harrison, Kettering, England. Wounded—Lance Sergt. W. H. Lake, Norfolk, England.

nother in her grief and a host of paign is one of the heartaches and riends which The Courier adds menacing forebodings for relatives re > many, and as John Bright once said The angel of death is abroad in the land you can almost hear the beating of his wings." Letters come in from many sources and the lads who are fit to write are letting their friends know > of the desperate wounds received. AT LANGEMARCK. A letter received by the Courier to-day stated the following facts about the scenes that marked the lighting

Italian People Clamor For War and

Threaten Germans-Can the King

Act Contrary to this Expressed Will?

ROME, via London, May 14.—The war fever continues to gread thorughout Italy, and the manifestations in the capital re particularly impressive. A crowd which favored Italy's inervention went last night to the hotel at which Gabriele D'Annunzio is stopping and cheered until the poet appeared on balcony and spoke unreservedly in favor of war. From

D'Annunzio's hotel the crowd went to the palace of Dowager

Pro-war enthusiasts engaged in a brief struggle with neu-ralists who were holding a meeting in the Place San Sylvestro.

In the clash the windows of a German cafe and in another estabishment were broken. Mounted police cleared the square, but the demonstration was continued for some time in the central

NOT CABINET COUNCIL.

terday afternoon, was not, strictly speaking, a cabinet council, according to the Giornale d'Italia. The ministers met merely to discuss the situation created by popular agitation for war and to consider questions which will be discussed at the next formal

GRAVE EVENTS EXPECTED. PARIS, May 14.-A Havas despatch from Rome filed late last night says that at the close of the meeting of ministers Premier Salandra conferred with King Vietor Emmanuel, and that grave events are expected in the very near future,

ROME, via Paris, May 14.—The meeting of ministers yes-

Queen Margherita and acclaimed her widely.

meeting of the cabinet.

Dangerously Ill.

marine had been run down.

ONE LESS AT THE KIEL CANAL

By Special Wire to the Courier.

BLYTH, England, May 14, 12.53 p.m.-A German submarine is reported to have been sunk in the North Sea. The captain of the steamer Collairnie, on reaching port to-day, stated his vessel apparently had destroyed the submarine by running it down off the Northumberland coast. No submarine was seen, but the captain said his ship struck a submerged obstacle. A large quantity of oil subsequently appeared on the surface, and the conclusion was drawn that a sub-

IF ANOTHER U.S. SHIP FRENCH IS SUNK, ATLANTIC FLEET WILL SAIL

we are in a very dangerous place which the Language of the day on which the Language of the Continued on the casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering the casualty lists of the day on the casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days that mark the serving casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days that mark the serving casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days that mark the serving casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days that mark the serving casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days that mark the serving casualty lists of the 4th Batton. The share of the despering days dangerous place. The New York Tribune comments of the despering fire a patch of about 200 yards from converging fire a patch of about 200 yards from Could live. The New York Tribune comments of the Getatorially on the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the day on which the Language that the American Government's note to Germany was shown here to-day by thousands of persons gathered the Getatorially on the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the day on which the Language that the American Government's note to Germany was shown here to-day by thousands of persons gathered to day by thousands of persons gathered to do, Mr. Wilson the day on which the Language that the American Government's note to Germany was shown here to-day with their converging fire a patch of about 200 yards front. In this zone the Getatorial you the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the day on which the Language that the Getatorial you the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the wire of the Getatorial you the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the wire of the Getatorial you the note as follows:

"What he had to do, Mr. Wilson the wire of the Getatorial you bandages in all sorts of places, but mostly on the head. We are out of munications. Owing to the government in language that cannot be mistaken. He has done more than the continued on Page 5) pers were unable to print the note in their customary early morning edi- States promptly and completely. tions. For this reason, only two morning papers were for sale on the street before 5 a.m., and these did not hour corresponding to that at which it against the German nation which will was to be delivered to the German live for all ages to come if the kaiser's foreign office in Berlin, the newspa- government fails now to meet the demands of the President of the United

"It is but natural that every American who is satisfied in advance of the

made by us.
"In the valley of the Aisne we yesterday destroyed four German blockhouses, and levelled several trenches"

CONSERVATIVE MEETING. A meeting of Conservatives of the Township of Oakland will be held at justice, the incontrovertible right of the American case, should turn first Village of Oakland on Friday the 14th Citizens, who were accustomed to those sentences in the president's purchase their morning newspapers at early hours while on their way to work, gathered in crowds outside the cover the demands of the cover the demands of work, gathered in crowds outside the cover the demands of the cover the cover the demands of the cover the demands of the cover the co

SEEN THROUGH THE EYES OF A PERISCOPE ON A SUBMARINE

The photograph was made by placing a camera in front of the eyeplece of the periscope while the submarine

Lieut. Arthur Bishop is Wounded After

Six Months' Hard Fighting---He Was Shot at Ypres.

Kingston, and was attached to the Middlesex regiment, has seen a lot Middlesex lay down there in the operation of the Middlesex regiment, has seen a lot whizzing bullets and the bursting the local manufacture of the control of the of fierc fighting and had hitherto shrapnel. had many marvellous escapes. He get a message back to our guns to was through the terrific encounter at turn their fire again on the German Neuve Chapelle and other engage- trench in front, and presently lespatch which was recently publish- consisted only of an officer Neuve Chapelle, Here is what it re- again and re-opened fire. The

"On getting out of their trenches out into the open, where As they pressed forward to the at- waiting for them with his Maxim

The following brief cable has been lane of their dead and dying 120 eceived by Mr. and Mrs. Frank yards long, a sight so poignant that "Regret Arthur wounded on 9th." sheer pity, at the undying glory of it.

The date, it will be seen, was on Three times the 2nd Middlesex tried Sunday last. Word as to the nature to burst through and silence those Their efforts were in vain. So the ments and when he fell, was in the guns opened fire and destroyed the 11th 1914, that he first entered the party of the Middlesex had cleared mention during the course of a special however, that the bombing party regarding men, they ducked down in their trench the Middlesex were a little crowded. gun officer of the Middlesex was

Paris, May 14.—2.31 p.m.—The newspaper offices waiting for the edi-french war office this afternoon issued the following statement on the man trench, so as to cover with their serious resistance had been anticipated.

BRITISH ARE STORMING OBSTACLE TO LILLE

Infuriated Over the Lusitania Disaster, British are Fighting With Greater Vigor and More Fiercely Than Ever Before.

from France tell that the British ans and Gurkhas. troops, infuriated over the Lusitania disaster, are fighting with greater vigor and more fierceness than ever through the army, arousing the in- period. It was found that, profiting tensest indignation.

Northern France says: "At no time have the Germans dislayed greater determination to break through at all costs, sacrificing large numbers of men, violating every rule of God and man, in a desperate, almost desparring effort. The fighting between tyres and Hill 60, which we still hold, Yres and Hill 60, which we still hold, cription. Despite losses, we have held range our position was made unten-

LAST OBSTACLE TO LILLE. "On the next sector, that of the meet our onslaught at Aubers, the Aubers ridge, the action has been of a quite different nature. Following up our quiet, but steady progress around Armentieres and Houpings. both of which places are now under heavy bombardment, we were enabled to launch an attack upon the ridge, armories on Tuesday evening, May the last obstacle between us and the 18th. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds plains which lead to Lille, some five to supply water wagon for 36th Bat-the left of our old Neuve Chapelle battle ground, the horse shoe ridge here runs in a north-easterly direction and before Fromelles there lies a small wood, similar to Pietre wood, which proved a stumbling block at Neuve Chapelle. This was quietly

London, May 14-Officers arriving captured by our India troops-Path-CARRIED THE RIDGE.

"We opened then upon the ridge a bombardment which, if it could not exceed in intensity that of Neuve before. The news spread quickly Chapelle, continued for a much longer by previous experience, the Germans had greatly strengthened their de-The Morning Post correspondent in fences with dugouts and shelters made able, and we had to content ourselves with the footing of the lower slopes of the ridge in the meantime. To > (Cantinued on Page 3) A FANCY FAIR.

Under the auspices Dufferin Rifles Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held in the or six miles away.

"Swinging around at Fromelles to talion, shortly leaving for the front. A right pleasing play entitled "H. M. S. Brantford," under the direction of