Puritans and numerous other sects had suffered real loss because of damage done to this Catholic temple.

"On the contrary, the Americans have The Rundschau für Technik und Wirtsuffered nothing, but have really gained schaft, of Prague, makes a strong appeal suffered nothing, but have really gained considerably. They have acquired objects of art thereby which were hewn out of granite and marble when the United States did not yet exist and when that country, according to some modern authorities, was inhabited by the uncivilized Indian. One New York newspaper, in a cold matter of fact manner, makes the remarkable announcement that the buying and selling of relies from the cathedral has become quits a matter of business.

dral has become quite a matter of business.

'When the workings of the German guns have loosened a piece of the sculptured stole from the edifice it is of course, an atrocity which cries to heaven, as does the blood of the poor, persecuted Indian or the blood of the German soldier killed by American ammunition.

But this feeling of indignation helps to schulate trade. The fallen stone becomes an object of commerce and can be bought in a New York antique shop in Fifth avenue with every guarantee and testimonial of its genulneness.

"Who should buy one of these 'ajgel heads' jbut an ammunition manufacturer into whose pockets the blood of the battle-into whose pockets are also being the project also was on foot for the Franz Josef Oriental Reills way, connecting Austria-Hungary with the Orient.
