Hold a Mock Trial, Rob and Half Hang Negro,

Virginia, Nevada, Nov. 18.—Word has been received here of an outbreak of mob violence which aimost resulted in the death of Henry Ellis, a negro, residing at Fay, a new mining camp, in Lincoln county.

A gang of men went to the cabin cocupled by Ellis, attacked him, dragged him out and held a mock trial on a charge of stealing $50 from a boarding house at Fay. At the conclusion of the trial they searched his pockets and took all the money he had, after which they placed a rope around his nock and urew him up three times. The limb to which the rope was fastened broke, and the mob decided not to hang the man, who was marched out of town and then released, He succeeded in reaching the town of Urent in color to the town and then released.
