

THE LAST WORD

Adjustors Still in Charge

When on October 30 we announced the closing out of C. H. Taylor's Retail Business we started a selling event unparalleled in the history of Hartland. Never was there such bargains, and never such a rush for them, never such an array of well-used, pleased buyers. To finally wind up this business at the end of the month we have decided on another sweeping sale.

Brand New Goods

It was well known that the stock as we found it was depleted in some lines, and other lines were somewhat out of date. We found it necessary to add new goods to make the stock complete. These were slaughtered mercilessly along with the rest of the stock. At this time we find it also necessary to bring in new goods and therefore
