Whitewashed Brantford Yesterday in a Good Game of Ball.

Comment and Chat

It is to be hoped that there will be as much wrangling over the proposed match between Demon Bartl and Conkle's Dutchman as there was between Bartl and Conkle when efforts were made some time ago to bring the pair together.

According to what Tommy Burns said last winter when he was in these parts there will be some disturbances in the Burns family if Tommy fails to poke all the fight out of black Mistah Johnson, when they meet on the coast. Burns' wife is a southern girl.

Now that Bartl has relinquished the title of welterweight wrestler, he having grown too big to make 145 pounds, will Charlie Conkle put the crown on again? Conkle still maintains that Bartl was many pounds overweight when the pair last met.

The spit ball represents about as low a type of skill as can be found in a vocation calling for a high type of skill, says The New York Sun.

Johnny Reiff has been engaged by a prominent turfman to ride his horses for the pittance of $50,000 per annum. "Every man has a chance to be president," so goes the Yankee proverb. John would upon comparing stipends no doubt sell his chance for something in the neighborhood of 27 cents.

Roger Bowershan and Frank Bowerman, the New York ball players, were joshing each other at pinocle. Frank made a thousand aces and Roger said: "Mr. Bowerman, you're a low begotten, bog-trotting, fly-blown, maggot-eaten, pig-soaked, soul-spavined, cocoon-nutted robber."

Frank looked at Roger for a moment with a tobacco-burdened grin and remarked: "Well, outside of that, I'm all right, ain't I?"

Mabel Hite, the actress, is in trouble over her husband, Mike Donlin, formerly of the Giants. He has been a bad actor lately, looking too often on the cup that cheers. Mabel has shipped him to New York, where he may join the Giants for the remainder of the season. She has exacted a promise from him to be good for six months, if he is, he may come back to her at the end of that time. If not, it is a divorce for her.

London Advertiser: While President Ballard, of the O. R. F. U. was about it he might as well suggested that St. Thomas and Port Stanley furnish teams to make out the fourth section in the senior series. It is really too bad that London couldn't be grouped with the Saints, in the intermediates, though. There is approximately as much real affection lost between the two places as there is between Bill Graham and ex-Umpire Reid.

First Little Girl—My papa is going to buy me a French count when I grow up. Second Little Girl—Hub! That's nothing. My papa's going to buy me a French poodee.

It Was a Pitchers' Battle Between Willie Simpson, and Williams, the Toronto Man, and Simpson Had the Best of It.

By defeating the best team Brantford League could pick, aided by the crack Toronto pitcher, Williams, the Britanians, representing the City League, made it three straight victories in the inter-city series, and left no doubt as to the superiority of the ball played by the teams of the local League. The game at Britannia Park yesterday was a good one, but not as clean as the first one between these two teams, two weeks ago. A very nice sized Wednesday afternoon crowd was present, and enjoyed it greatly.

Williams, the Toronto pitcher, had nothing on Simpson, of the Brits. Willie, in fact, had a little the better of it. On the whole both were well supported, although Carey, the locals' short stop, had a bad day.

With two out in the first Shea drove one out to centre which Bradley fumbled and the runner reached third, there to die. For Hamilton three men struck out, and Pitcher Williams looked pretty good, as it requires a pitcher to "hang up" Conkle, Carey and Bradley in one inning. The second and third innings were very fast, the only features being Hackbush's hit in the second and Conkle's hit and steal in the third.

It was in the Brits' half of the fourth that all the scoring was done. Bradley opened with a safe hit, Hackbush went out and White cleverly beat his punt. White struck out, but an error by Mr. Donald at left had allowed Bradley to score, and when Weller sent up a fly White also ran for the plate, as there were two out. Shea ran in Concella's way and neither of them caught the ball. A hit by Bradley in the sixth was all that the Brits were able to get after the fourth, but that was almost as much as the Brantford boys got. They could do nothing with Simpson. In the seventh inning, however, with one out, Arthur made a safe hit and Cardow got a charity. With two on bases Williams struck out but Apperyr bunted and beat the ball to first. With three on bases Concella hit sharply to Wark, who got the ball over to first before the runner.

Eddie Dore umpired the game. He has a style all his own, and very unlike anything ever seen in Hamilton. His voice is good, ditto his decisions, although he gave one yesterday that looked wrong, calling Williams out at first in the third on a throw from Howard when the crowd considered the man safe. GAMES REARRANGED.

The City League has made a few slight changes in the arrangement of games for Saturday next and Labor Day with a view to giving lovers of good baseball better sport than the schedule provided. On Saturday the feature event—Britanians vs. St. Patricks—will be played at 4 o'clock, and not at 2, as originally provided. The Saints realize that they must win this game to have a chance for the championship, and will play the game of their lives to do it.

On Monday, Labor Day, the arrangement of games will be 10 a. m.—Westinghouse vs. Britannia. 2 p. m.—Britannia vs. Dundas. 4 p. m.—St. Patrick vs. Westinghouse. All these games will be played at Britannia Park.

The annual competition for the League's prizes for base running and ball throwing, will also take place on the afternoon of Labor Day, at 2:30. These events will be thrown open to all ball players of the city this year, entry free. It is expected that there will be a large entry from the Intermediate League.

B. B. COMMISSION'S REPORT.

Cincinnati, Aug. 29.—The National Baseball Commission has issued a notice supplemental to the recent bulletin to all major league clubs pertaining to major league players sold to minor league clubs with options to recall them before Aug. 25, 1907.

It says: "Pertaining to player Hurler the bulletin read: 'By Brooklyn to Toronto—Jerry Henley, $500.' "It should have been 'Jerry Hurler, $250.'"

"On June 23, 1907, the Brooklyn club entered into an agreement with Jersey City for the release of player J. H. Butler for $200 with an option to repurchase prior to Aug. 25. The Brooklyn club notified the commission that Jersey City has failed to sign and return agreement in writing, and exercises option through commission. The commission renders player ineligible until agreement, properly signed, is received.

"The following additional sales, with the option to repurchase on or before Aug. 25, should be added to the last bulletin: American League—By New York to Montreal, Robt. Keefe and Louis Brockels, $200 each. By Boston to Toronto, Pitcher Jacobson, $1,000. National League—By New York to Rochester, John Sundezm, $250."

HIGHBALL WAS FIRST.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 29.—The third day's racing at Narragansett Park brought an interesting event, the third race, the 2:04 class for pacers, which required four heats, because all the starters were pretty well matched. The event of the day, the Roger Williams Stake of $5,000 for 2:12 trotters, attracted a large crowd than marked either of the first two days, about 2,000 being present.

Highball and Sonoma Girl were both entered, and the withdrawal of the latter was a great disappointment to the spectators. Just before the race it was announced that Sonoma Girl was in no condition to do any racing. As was then expected, Highball ran away from the field, getting both heats, with very little trouble, though Geers' guiding traveled very lame. The feature of this race was the fight for second money between Ashasham, Wilkes Heart and Berice.

The first race, 2:20 pace, with eight starters, was won by Laura Bellini in straight heats handily. Both heats were hotly contested by the mare and Hoy. Laura Bellini won by narrow margins. The third race, 2:04 class, for pacers, was a puzzle. Ardelle, Argot Boy and Kruger all looked like first money. Four heats were necessary to decide this event. Ardelle led all the way in the first heat, with Kruger and Argot Boy fighting it out neck and neck for second place. Kruger finished about a length behind Ardelle. In the second race Ardelle and Argot Boy travelled neck and neck, with Kruger a few lengths behind. Kruger took the heat, with Kip second, and Argot Boy third. Geers, with Ardelle, finished a fair fourth. In this heat Argot Boy wore hoppers and showed better form. In the next heat Kruger took the lead but broke at the three-quarter mark giving way to Argot Boy who finished first. Ardelle succeeded in getting second place. At this point the mare seemed to go lame which was more noticeable in the final heat. Only the heat winners started in this heat. Kruger finished about a length behind Ardelle.
