

SELECTIONS AND ENTRIES

Selections:

Following are the Times' racing reporter's selections for this afternoon's races at the H. J. C. track:

First—Star Wave, Hickory Stick, Cast Steel.

Second—Royal Onyx, Simcoe, St. Jeanne.

Third—Colt entry, Byzantine, Waterway.

Fourth—Guy Fisher, Superstition, Creel.

Fifth—The Golden Butterfly, Galvesca, Lady Sybil.

Sixth—Hoyle, Paul Ruinart, Minot.

Seventh—John Carroll, Gnesque, Mazuma.

Following is the London Free Press expert's comment on to-day's card:

Dominion Owned, Two-year-olds. This weight should not stop Star Wave, but it is doubtful if she will start. Hickory Stick will have a good boy up, and should be right there to-day. Frolic is the only other one I can see.

Ontario Handicap—Red River is not all in, and will be heard from to-day. Bellwether is here with the right load, as is also Royal Onyx. Simcoe's last win was nothing, and will have to show considerable improvement to be inside to-day.

Burlington Handicap, Steeplechase—J. W. Colt Entry for the suicide event. Waterway for the place, and if Billyberry has been schooled at all, lookout.

Tackett Selling Stakes—In this I am taking one that has been running about twenty points below his form. Guy Fisher is the one I have reference to. Gretna Green, if ready, is sure to be a contender. Light Wool is also ready. John E. McMillan's win was no fluke.

Two-year-old Fillies—The Golden Butterfly is apparently Chin's hope. This needs no comment from me. Galvesca should place here, with Lady Sybil at price third.

Three-year-olds—Paul Ruinart will pretty nearly show the way. Desperado likes this route. Minot is a long time coming; might go over when your back is turned.

Three-year-olds and Up—John Carroll looks the best bet of the day, and should win here at a fair price. Muskegday for the place. Darington will win again at this track. Tab the wise betting on Steel.
