COL. DENISON MAY RETIRE

TORONTO, March 25—There wa a persistent rumor around the city hall that Colonel Denison may shortly retire from the position of senior police magistrate, and that the board of control would this week consider the question of granting him a retiring allowance or pension. Colonel Denison has held the position for 44 years.

EUROPEAN SCHEME, NEARLY
"FREE LOVE," CONDEMNED

CHICAGO, March 25—"Man shortage" plans in Europe, or rather the plans to remedy the man shortage due to ravages of war, do not meet with enthusiastic support in Chicago especially among the women. Their especial ire is aroused by suggestions made by Mrs. G. Gasquoin E. Hartley, an English woman writer and Mme. Odette Dulac, a French writer.
Mrs. Hartley offers the following solution:—
Open recognition of honorable partnerships outside the marriage relations, not necessarily permanent, with proper provision for the guarding of women, who in all cases should be protected.
Marriage has ceased to become a discipline; it has become an experiment.
Divorce relief from misfortune not guilt.
The door for marriage must be left open to go out, as it is left open to enter.

tire body.

"Arranged" divorce suits are an extraordinarily healthy sign.
Mme. Dulac on the other hand describes a proposed "maternity card" to be issued by the French government to mothers, "married or unmarried" entitling them to especial care at the hands of the state.
Admitting that France lost 1,000, 000 men in the war, critics here of the proposed remedies do not believe that the women of France and Belgium would submit to moral indignities in order to quickly rebuild the population. Chicagoans, women and

ENGLAND BARES PLOT
FOR IRISH REVOLT

LONDON, March 25—Details of an alleged revolutionary plot by Sinn Feiners, British Bolshevik sympathizers and Germans, with uprisings set for April 5th, in Ireland, England and Scotland, are today in possession of the British government, according to information which is both unofficial and unconfirmed, but which was secured from authentic sources.
The assassination of Thomas Mc-Curtain, Sinn Fein lord mayor of Cork, grew out of this revolutionary conspiracy, it was declared.
Learn of Conspiracy.
"Technical officers" were to come on a special ship from Germany. But the British Government learned of the plot and the Germans never arrived.
What steps the Government has secretly taken to crush the conspira-tion, is not revealed, but the ring leaders are said to be known. Special troops are still being held in readiness to move to any spot where a der break out. Special mounted police guards have been on duty Buckingham palace and the great ment buildings.
