A St. John Lawyer Skips out Heavily in Debt.

G. Herbert Lee, a well known lawyer of St. John, has been getting into difficulties. For some time past Mr. Lee was known to be in trouble but few had an idea of the magnitude of his liabilities. From all accounts he has completely ruined the Drury estate. On Saturday last he escaped to Boston when he found that the sheriff was looking for him.

He was well known in Fredericton an He was well known in Fredericton and has several sorry that they made his acquaintance. Early in the spring A. F. Randolph & Sons endorsed a $2000 note drawn by him in favor of Mrs. Drury. When the note became due Lee came here and wanted it renewed. To pay Mr. Randolph, he got $350 from W. H. Quinn, on a note drawn by him and endorsed by the Drurys, mother and son. He got $200 by a note endorsed by H. B. Rainsford, but failed to realize any more. Randolph & Sons then renewed for $1500 for thirty days. Among those he visited on his begging mission was bishop Kingdon. His last trip was made here about three weeks since, but he failed to get either money or signatures. Lee has not come back yet, but it is thought he will return should no effort be made to proceed against him. He has given up his bank keys and a power of attorney to Mr. Baird to open the boxes.
