THE RELIEF OF RAIN.

Day after day the sun rode high, all brazen in a brazen sky, and all the weary sons of men stood round and kicked, and kicked again. The farmers, "coming into town," said all the crops are withering down. Oh, we had trouble in our hearts; we hung around the clanging maris discussing politics all day. "Old things," we said, "must pass away; old grafts no longer can us fool; they'll have to let the Peepul rule. Our woes all come from Politics, from ringsters' sullen and statesmen's tricks, and we shall put that crowd in chains and let the Peepul hold the reins." And then one day the rainclouds came, obscuring all the spangled frame, the torrents poured, hand over hand, and brought new life to all the land. You should have seen the fellows hump! We sought no more the village pump to kick like some old fretful mule, and talk about the Peepul's Rule. 'Twas not the government that made our bosoms sore and tempers frayed, or kept us 'neath the collars warm—we needed rain and not reform. And thus it is with half the men who kick and snort and kick again about the way the country's run; their crops are withering in the sun, their cows are dry, their hens won't lay, noll evil has attacked their hay, their hiddies will not hatch out chicks—they take it out in politics!

Gas is Coal
With the Trouble
Taken Out.

Gas is really nothing more than coal, only with gas you have the coal less the dirt, ashes and smoke. These have been taken out by the Gas Company. The weight, too, has been taken out, for when you use gas you don't have to carry it up from the cellar in buckets, straining your back in the attempt. All of the drudgery has been removed. The Gas Company has taken everything out of the coal but the heat—so that's the one thing you want. This they deliver to you right to the burner of your range. You only have to turn a tap and strike a match in order to have it.

If your mind is half made up to buy a GAS RANGE, remove the remaining doubt by thinking of last summer and the many days when your kitchen was like a burning furnace. The gas range never overheats the kitchen.

Phone the Gas Company, or call at their showrooms and get full particulars.

'Cascarets' for a Sick, Sour Stomach.

Gently but thoroughly cleanse and regulate your Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fulness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10 cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.
