

"The Tonic of War."

Not only does war brace our nerves, but to a very large extent it purifies our minds.—Daily Graphic.

Shall war bring nought but misery and ill?
See how its shadow falls athwart our land
And mars all joy and mirth on every hand—
Our hearts are filled with strange foreboding pain.
O'er fields afar, there lies a blood-red stain
And husbandry must lose her just reward;
For reaping-hook behold a sharpened sword!

Shall war bring nought but misery and pain?
Look, look again with clearer eye and see
Strong hands held out and clasped in unity
To form a chain which girdles all the world.
And Britain's sons, beneath her flag united
A wondrous brotherhood for Right shall stand.
To help the weak and guard the Motherland
Each difference—sunk, forgetting jealous strife:
For her the fight—for her they'll give their life.

Shall war bring nought but misery and ill?
See yet again, how dauntless courage leads
To self-forgetfulness—to glorious deeds—
Rise, Britons rise! Cast off all deadly sloth,
Face valiantly the foe, keep steadfast troth.
Fear God and trust in Him, come gain come loss,
So shall you purer be, purged from all dross—
With higher aims, with stronger, finer will.
Then War shall bring you good—not wholly ill.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Sirs—I have used your MINARD'S LINIMENT for the past 25 years and whilst I have occasionally used other liniments I can safely say that I have never used any equal to yours.

It rubbed between the hands and inhaled frequently, it will never fail to cure cold in the head in 24 hours. It is also the Best for bruises, sprains, etc.

Yours truly,

J. G. LESLIE.

"Them Ol' Letters."

The headline at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day: "Them Ol' Letters" is a favourite American poem illustrated by the Powers Picture Play Company; all who saw this picture yesterday are charmed with the staging and photography.

Lois Weber and Phillips Smalley, the Universal favourites, are featured in "On Suspicion" an exciting drama written by Lois Weber, the photography is the usual Rex quality, all the world happenings is shown in a whole reel of Universal Animated Weekly, the best made. "Such a Villain" is a most laughable comedy, one of the liveliest pictures you ever saw and one you will be delighted with it.

J. O'Neill Farrell, baritone, sings: "Our Boys in Brown," a British soldier's marching song. Mr. Farrell will appear in regulation military costume. Best music, best pictures and quite attention at the clean and cosy Crescent.

British Aviator Killed

Capt. Channery and His French Pilot Fall to Death Near Paris.

Paris, Jan. 22.—An aeroplane accident, involving the death of a British Officer, Capt. Channery, occurred on Monday afternoon at the Quai de Javel, near Autant.

The French pilot Laporte, with an English observer on board, was testing a Voisin biplane belonging to the Paris squadron when the breaking of a wire caused him to lose control. The machine swerved wildly for some moments as the pilot tried to maintain its balance, and then fell on the railway tracks bordering the Seine, and immediately burst into flames.

Laporte jumped clear at the last moment, but died just after his removal to the hospital. Channery was held fast under the machine and was burned to death.

ARRANGED BIG LOAN FOR ALLIES

Paris, Jan. 22.—A conference was held in Paris by the Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George, and Alexandre Ribot and P. Bark, the French and Russian Ministers of Finance. It is said that the meeting was arranged to consider a joint loan of fifteen billion francs ($25,000,000,000), to bear interest of 3½ per cent.

OUTFITTING FOR SEAL HUNT.—Preparations are now being made at "Channel" for the sealing voyage. A couple of schooners there are being made ready. They will prosecute in the Gulf, same as last year.

Work!

A Song of Triumph—(By Aryela Morgan.)

Work!
Thank God for the might of it.
The ardor, the urge, the delight of it—
Work that springs from the heart's desire,
Setting the soul and the
