Thoughts Upon the Times.

(By PATRIOT.)

By Saturday's express there arrived another batch of our country's wounded heroes. They were met at the station by the usual crowd of relatives and friends and formally welcomed home by the Premier and the Minister of Militia. By the way it would be an act of charity if, during this hot weather, our worthy politicians condensed their addresses of welcome and refrained from inserting the thin edge of politics. When one sees the usual bunch of heelers so anxious to give the lusty "three cheers for the Premier," one is led into being critical. One could not help being sympathetic for the poor lads who after a long and tedious railway journey had to stand in the sweltering heat listening to the "wordy" Premier on Saturday. It was no wonder that one of them fainted under the ordeal.

The cry from the fishermen in the outports is give us "more salt and still more salt." Apart from the supplying merchants on Water Street very few people in St. John's realize what it means to the country to be without a supply of this necessary commodity. It is a serious matter to be without salt and still more serious to require such large quantities of it. It means, of course, our fishermen have secured an extraordinarily large fishery, and strange as it may appear, a large fishery just now may do more harm than a poor fishery. The Tonnage Committee must be having a hard time these days trying to secure vessels for the requirements of the trade. The continued prosperity of the country will depend in a

Annual Flower Service

Precher Speaks on Child Welfare.

There was a large gathering of people at the Church of England Cemetery yesterday afternoon to attend the annual flower service and to decorate with beautiful flowers the graves of the faithful departed. Rev. H. Uphill, Rector of St. Mary's, officiated and also delivered an impressive address, whose words will live long in the memory of those who were present. The preacher availed of the opportunity to speak for a few minutes in favour of the Child Welfare Movement recently inaugurated by Mayor Gosling, and in doing so paid a high tribute to the mothers of the country, of whom he said that none had greater love for their offspring, but there was a great lack of knowledge as to the manner in which their children should be brought up. There were far too many little graves in the sacred ground on which he stood and he urged all present to do their utmost to assist and conform with the rules and regulations that may be instituted in the interest of the Child. The occasion was most opportune and we feel certain that the preacher's timely words fell not on deaf ears. The financial condition of the cemetery was in a very bad state and a disgrace to so wealthy a people as the Church of England in St. John's. The C.L.B. Band attended and furnished the music for the occasion. A collection was taken up in aid of the cemetery fund and a handsome amount realized.

Topsail Ladies Aid.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church at Topsail, held a highly successful tea in the Orange Hall, on Wednesday evening, August 22nd. The affair was remarkably well patronized, the ladies serving tea were kept busily employed until a late hour. These in charge of ice-cream, refreshment and candy stalls were kept equally busy. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with small trees, woodland moss, ferns and trailing greens, by the young ladies of the church, who showed much good taste in the treatment of arch and platform. A few gracefully draped flags greatly enhanced the effect.

Tea was daintily served on small tables, restaurant fashion, each table, with its pretty bouquet, daintily lined and china, proved tempting alike to eye and appetite. The sincere thanks of the Ladies' Aid are due to the following: The L.O.A. for the free use of its fine hall, our summer visitors from St. John's and elsewhere, our friends of the C. of E. and all others who so kindly sent donations of money or cake; the gentlemen who faithfully kept a good supply of boiling water on hand, and those who so generously patronized our tea, amongst whom we would specially mention the Bell Island excursionists to whom we owe a large measure of our abundant success. The splendid sum achieved was $182—a result unprecedented in the annals of Topsail Methodism.—Com

At the Crescent.

Ham and Bud are on deck at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day in one of their best comedies, "The Icemen and the Artist." Carolyn Birch, William Humphrey and Leo Delaney are presented in "The Secret Feature" in three reels. "Tom Mix, the popular Cow Boy actor feature in a splendid western comedy drama "Too Many Chefs." Madame Olive Timmons sings one of Ernest R. Ball's latest ballads "Turn Back the Universe and Give Me Yesterday." Two shows afterwards and two shows at night. Madame Timmons sings at every show.

A Contradiction.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to contradict an item which appeared in your issue of the 23rd instant, stating that the girl who stole the money from the residence of the Soper family was afterwards located at the Central Hotel. Now this is a falsehood. I am the proprietress of Central Hotel, and I want the general public to understand that my house is not open to all who might come this way. I am very particular with regard to the sort of persons I admit, and therefore it is very unlikely that Central Hotel could become a refuge for robbers.

The obliging informant should be more cautious as to the light which such an assertion is liable to throw on the reputation of an hotel. As far as I can learn, the thief was found at the West End Hotel, the proprietress of which is Mrs. Tucker.

Yours truly,
 (MRS.) MARY FITZGERALD.

Whereas, this society has heard with sincere regret of the demise of Rev. Brother Patrick O'Hurley, who for over forty years was a faithful friend of this institution, ever manifesting the deepest interest in its welfare and advancement;

And whereas, Brother O'Hurley was a kindly and courteous gentleman, respected, esteemed and loved by all who knew him; and as an educationalist his noble and self-sacrificing work, during the many years he laboured in St. John's, is a perennial monument to his sainted memory;

Be it resolved, that this Society place on record its sentiments of profound sorrow at the great loss sustained by the Brothers, the society and the Catholic community, through the passing of this gifted scholar, devoted teacher, and true and loyal friend;

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Rev. Brother Whitty, Superior General of the Order; to the Rev. Brother Ryan, Superior of the American Province; to the Rev. Patriotic Football.

A stiff contest will be witnessed this evening when the B.I.S. and Star will meet. The former team is leading in the race for the championship. It is conservatively estimated that one thousand dollars in receipts will be taken by the end of the season for the series of games. This amount will be handed to one of the patriotic causes, the rolling in connection with the playing of a return match between the old fellows who started in 1901. The game is being arranged for next Thursday week. Carboncar, Aug. 23rd, 1917.

Man Run Over

NOW IN HOSPITAL.

About 10 o'clock on Saturday night an elderly man named Walsh was run over by Mr. M. Kelly's horse on Water Street, opposite Mr. W. H. Jackman's store, and as a result now lies in a critical condition at the General Hospital. The victim, who is over 60 years of age, attempted to cross the street when he was struck in the head by one of the shafts and thrown violently to the ground. He was picked up and brought to Mr. P. O'Mara's pharmacy where he was attended by a doctor who inserted five stitches in a scalp wound and ordered him to the Hospital in the ambulance. Mr. Kelly is held blameless by those who witnessed the accident.
