Harbor Grace Notes.

Mrs Freeman Yetman and little daughter, Freda, who have been in the U.S.A. for some months past, returned home again on Saturday. Miss Carrie Parsons, daughter of Mr. Austin Parsons, arrived by the same train on a holiday trip to her parents.

Schooner Exotic, W. H. Baggs, master was docked here on Thursday and after undergoing considerable repairs was undocked on Saturday. This ador with fish cargo ran into Salvage arbor struck a rock and became very and reached Carbonear where her fish was landed, after which she docked at Harbor Grace. Repairs being effected she left for Carbonear early Tuesday morning to reload again.

been enjoying good health for a long while, had the misfortune of breaking her leg on Sunday last. She left for St. John's by the following morning's train to receive treatment for the injured limb at the General Hospital.

Rev. Mr. Swann, who conducted the nemorial service for the late Rev. W. Methodist Church on Sunday night, returned to Brigus again by Tuesday morning's train. His old friends here were pleased to have him with them and renew acquaintance

Mr. and Mrs. E. Simmons, Mrs. R. F. W. Strong, Miss Winnie Rogers, Messrs, A. Rogers and A. Kavanaugh motored to St. John's Tuesday morn ing, and arrived at 3 p.m. They will remain for a couple of days.

A number of people from this tow went to Bay Roberts yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Snowden, which took place there that afternoon, and was a very large one.

Mrs. Don. Moore (nee Miss Bessie Tetford), and two children, are in town from St. Anthony, visiting her father, Mr. Robert Tetford. Her many friends are glad to see her at the home town once more.

We tender our sympathy to Mrs. W. Bailey—a former resident of this town, on the occasion of the passing of her aged father, the venerable Rev. J. G. Cragg, whose death occurred at St. John's this morning. After the demise of his wife at Whitbourne, the reverend gentleman came to spend the eventide of life with Mrs. Bailey, who removed to St. John's about three years ago, and he has since resided with her there. Interment takes place at Whitbourne on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Horwood and two children went out on Tuesday to the city. Mr. Horwood holds a position there, and his family are removing for the winter.

Irene Rich Again in Roger's Cast.

SCREEN ACTRESS IS CHOSEN AS LEADING WOMAN IN "BOYS WILL BE BOYS."

Goldwyn Pictures Corporation announces that Irene Rich has the lead again with Will Rogers, after an interim of some three or four pictures in which other feminine artists of the screen have held the favored place, because of the type demands of certain stories. Both Miss Rich and the star are happy over their co-operation in 'Boys Will Be Boys," which comes to the Nickel Theatre to-night. At the time this photoplay was cast Miss Rich had been cast for a strong part in another Goldwyn picture, but at special request of Rogers was released to play in "Boys Will Be Boys,"
