SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

(See it first--think about it after.)

"I Had Bilious Attacks and Stomach Weakness"

Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Yorker, Sask., writes: "I suffered from stomach and liver trouble, and used to have bilious attacks so bad that I could do nothing for weeks at a time. My stomach would be so weak that not even a drink of water would stay on it. On my sister's advice, I began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and must say that they have made me feel like a new woman."

Approves Suggestion.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir--In reading your editorial last evening on taxation of our fish products, going into U.S.A., I very much approve of your suggestion regarding counter duty on all fish shipped in American bottoms, and I am sure you are voicing the opinion of most of our people on this subject. Then the office need not be applied only to fish, I think it should be fixed upon other lines as well so that our purchases should be made in British and Canadian markets. American agents who come here from time to time take considerable business from our local and commercial men, and it is a well known fact that most of our business firms give the preference to the men who drift in from outside. I know what I am talking about. Every day gives proof of this; to those of us who are working side by side with the men we refer to. They get the business while we have to take a back seat. We pay taxes all the year round, they drop in occasionally and pay once per annum. Still this thing is allowed to go on and no united effort on the part of our agents and commercial men is made against it. Do not drop the matter, Mr. Editor. Keep at it and stir up discussion along this line until some satisfactory result is obtained.

Yours truly,

AGENT.

Appreciation of Hospitality Shown at Bonavista.

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir--I feel it duty bound to publicly acknowledge my appreciation of the reception given us by the friends of Bonavista when landing after a 30 mile trip in open motor boat and for the hospitality manifested during our stay with them and also for their respect, sympathy, and support given us at the meeting held on the night of the 16th inst. The meeting reflects great credit on the people of Bonavista and speaks volumes for their citizenship. It is deplorable to find some outside, who are prepared to engineer plans with the hope of having them executed on innocent strangers. Providence is always on the side of Right. Bonavista's worst enemy is the person who misrepresents her in any way. Thanking you in anticipation for space.

Yours truly,

Oct. 28th, 1922.
Industrial Breakdown
if Prices are not Reduced

TOKYO.--Japan must reduce price levels, but must do so cautiously and gradually unless she wants to risk a general industrial breakdown, according to Viscount Takahashi, former Premier. He explains that Japan's industries have grown enormously during the last five years and far faster than those of Great Britain, the United States or Canada. He says that industrial workers in Japan have become wasteful and extravagant and to reduce prices of commodities now, would undermine the strength of the nation. "Extensive export trade," he said, "is not dependent on low prices for the products to be exported. People say that our prices on goods shipped to China are high, but our exports to that country have been steadily maintained."

Don't Like School Uniforms.

TOKYO.--The Japanese school boy is revolting against the enforced wearing of uniforms. The students at 18 schools and colleges in Tokyo have started a campaign against the use of uniforms and in their protest they have coupled a grievance against the proprietors of boarding houses. In a petition to the Minister of Education, the students claim they are charged exorbitant prices for lodgings, meals, charcoal and newspapers and that these expenses, plus the cost of wearing uniforms, have become unbearable.

Halifax Woman Tells of Big Change

"The 'Flu' pulled me down to where I was almost a skeleton and left me in such a miserable state of health that life seemed hardly worth living. My circulation was so weak that my limbs, hands and feet were actually blue. I could not keep a bite of solid food on my stomach and for a whole month the only nourishment I could take was a small quantity of milk. Words can't describe how I suffered from indigestion. At times my heart would almost stand still, and I simply had to fight for breath, and I had such bad dizzy spells that I could not see."

"Something seemed to keep telling me that if I would take Tonic I would get better and that is just what happened, for I had not taken more than three doses until I began to feel stronger. After finishing my sixth bottle I was eating just anything I wanted and found I had gained more than thirty pounds in weight. I can now do all my housework and look after the children and still feel as fresh at the end of the day as when I start in the morning."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. George Shearing, 268 Chebucto Road, Halifax, N.S. Tonic is sold by all good druggists.

The Economist.

Donald McTavish lay dying. He had been all day about it, and his wife had spent weary, though expectant, hours at his bedside.

When night had come, however, she felt that she could leave the house, work undone no longer. She went up to her husband and said--

"Awel, Don, I must gang along to the kitchen the noo. I'll leave a light by your bed. Ye'll no be takin' yer departure afore I come back. But if ye should, ye'll no forget to blow out the candle afore ye dee, will ye?"

A beautiful afternoon cape features a collar of monkey fur, which is lined and fastened with brown velvet ribbon.

Fashions and Fads.

Chinese designs embroidered in gold thread combine with fur as favorite trimmings of the smartest tailors.

Suede, very supple and pliable, is being used for fashioning capes. The cut and finish of these capes are distinctly severe.

There is a decided vogue for costume consisting of a blue trimmed with stuffed tubing over a brown dress.

To match a street dress trimmed with a soft fur is often These capes are generally quarters in length, and have big lars of the fur.

Law Students Moot.

JUDGE MORRIS PRESIDES.

Last night the Law Students Club held its first moot for the season. Judge Morris K.C., who is ever ready to oblige the students presided in his official capacity. Two keenly contested cases were discussed. In the first J. G. Muir represented Pitt, and H. P. Carter the Deft. In the second case J. H. Devine represented Pitt, and H. Garland for Deft. At the conclusion of the Counsel's arguments the Judge in an instructive manner elucidated the different points of law concerned. His Honor referred in an enthusiastic manner to the Club's activities, advising the students to avail of it to the utmost, assuring them that they would receive inestimable benefits from such an institution. At the conclusion, a hearty vote of thanks and appreciation was given the Judge. The Club holds its next moot two weeks time.

Open New Barber Shop.

Mr. J. L. Courtney has opened his new barber shop at 2 Prescott Street, which in future shall be known as "The Tip Top Barber Shop." Mr. Courtney, who has spent some time in New York studying the tonorial business has installed the latest appliances for sterilizing towels, in fact all the latest sanitary arrangements. A visit to the Tip Top will convince you of its up-to-date appointments and that the service is par excellence.

Home Had Rough Voyage.

After one of the stormiest trips for the season, the S.S. Home reached port from Straits of Belle Isle on Monday morning, says the Western Star of Wednesday last. She brought along nearly two hundred passengers. The Home encountered gales of wind with heavy seas throughout most of the trip, and when going North found it impossible to make some of the ports of call. Just as she was leaving Lark Hr. on Monday morning her steering gear gave out, but it was not long before the emergency wheel was put in order and the ship enabled to proceed. Her place on the Straits route is to be taken by the S.S. Sagana for the remainder of the season, and she goes on the Green Bay route.

Japanese Shipping Expansion.

YOKOHAMA.--Viscount Mada, Minister of Communications, states that the proposed new subsidy bill to be considered by the Japanese diet is not to help shipbuilders, but to assist trans-Pacific shipping lines. Shipbuilders, who are now experiencing a severe depression in their industry, are preparing to make a protest.

Instant Beauty for Everyone Says VIOLA DANA

Just Make This Simple Test.

Los Angeles, Cal.--"I am often asked how I keep my complexion so fresh looking," says Viola Dana, the Screen Star. "It's a simple process for anyone to have a smooth, velvety, rosy white, complexion and unwrinkled skin if they will devote just a little time in caring for it."

"To have a clear, healthy skin, cleanliness is absolutely necessary. For this purpose I use a good cleansing cream (Liska cold cream I have found to be the best). I then bathe my face with warm water, rinse with cold, dry thoroughly and apply Derwillo, a simple toilet preparation."

This marvelous preparation instantly beautifies the complexion and gives anyone a more youthful appearance. You can form no idea what a wonderful effect it has upon the skin until you test it. Here is the best way. Put it on one side of your face, then look in your mirror and note the difference. You will need no further argument to convince you that there is nothing like it for beautifying purposes."

The instant results it gives is the reason for its popularity with actresses and discriminating women realize the value of a rosy-white, smooth, clear complexion. Derwillo is especially recommended for dark, sallow skin, tan, shiny nose, blackheads, coarse pores and numerous other facial blemishes. Many use it in preference to face powders or all other beautifiers, as it is more lifelike. Perspiration does not affect it, therefore it stays on better than face powder, does not rub off on clothing and its use cannot be detected.

NOTE--Here is a fair, honest proposition by the druggists and department stores of this city. Get a bottle of Derwillo from any of these stores, give it a trial for a few days and if you don't like it take it back and get your money. Could anything be fairer? It is sold by all up-to-date druggists and including M. Connors, A. W. Kennedy, T. McMurdo & Co.
