A Nfld. Wedding

LANGSTON- EWING.
The many friends of Mr. J. Charles Langston formerly of this city but for many years residing in Montreal will read with interest the following account of his marriage to one of the fair daughters of his native land, Miss Isabel Mary Ewing.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Mary Ewing, daughter of Mrs. H. S. Butler and the late Mr. Alexander F. Ewing, of St. John's, Newfoundland, to Mr.
J. Charles Langston, of Montreal, took place at five o'clock last evening, in St. Stephen's Church, West-mount. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Charters, D.C.
L., rector of the church. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. J. W. Ewing, wore a Parisian model gown of corn flower blue crepe bevelly headed, and a large picture hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley and ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Stella Taylor, of St.
John's, Nfld., cousin of the bride, wore an imported gown of salmon pink kitten's ear crepe with black picture hat. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden-hair ferns. The best man was Mr. Jack Langston, and the ushers were Mr. C. Langston and Mr.
Fred Ewing. The church decorations were of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. The organist of the church, Mr. E. Sweeting, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as they left the church. During the service he played "Salut d'Amour," Elgar, "Romance Sans Paroles," Lefebure Wely, "Berceuse," Debussy, "Feuille d'Al-bum," Durand-Guilman. While the register was being signed, Miss Wil-cock, soprano soloist at St. Stephen's, sang "Love's Consolation." The wedding reception was held at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 497 Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount, where the decorations consisted of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, hydran-geas and autumnal foliage. Mr. and Mrs. Langston left for New York, the bride going away in a fawn suit with hat to match and silver fox fur. On their return they will take up their residence at 1023 Tupper street, Montreal. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, and to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the best man a gold scarf pin.—Montreal Star, Nov. 8.

Missionary Work in the Wilds of Peru Cannibalism is still practised in the interior of South America, according to statements made at the Adventist Church last evening by Pastor E. F.

Peterson, a returned missionary who is spending a few days in the city in the interests of the work of their church.

He said, "Some of our missionaries have traveled with an Indian in the remote interior of Eastern Central Peru for several days who had escaped from his tribe to avoid the tragic fate of being killed and eaten by his fellow tribesmen. This tribe have the custom of killing and eating a man when he arrives at a certain age, being considered too old to live longer or serve the interests of the village.
The Indians who practise this terrible rite," added Missionary Peterson, "live secluded in the great forests of Central South America, avoiding all possible contact with the white man."

He continued: "Our missionaries have penetrated regions almost unknown and unexplored, traveling at the hazard of their lives in districts where many a white man has lost his life at the hands of the savage Indians.
Not long since we established a new centre of work among the Campas, a powerful tribe in Eastern Central Peru.
This tribe has heretofore resisted all efforts to evangelize them and killed some priests who dared to venture among them a few years ago. This tribe worship the moon principally and practise other terrible rites and customs. Witchcraft prevails there also. Often two or three innocent children are condemned and killed because of the illness and death of one member of a family. Polygamy is extant among them also."

"Usually when some in a family falls ill, the witch doctor or medicine-man, is called. He is generally a very astute fellow. He examines very carefully the hut of the ill person, scrutinizing every article in sight. Generally he ends up by pointing out from one to three members of the family, as responsible for the illness. All illness and death is attributed to the influence of an evil spirit which is supposed to have taken possession of the condemned persons. Mostly always children of tender years are blamed. They are immediately seized and bound around the waist with a strong cord and tied to a stake on a post outside the native village. Then they are given a sharp stick and compelled to die in the earth, without crying. At once the rumor spreads and so is dying death, which is the call for all round about to abuse him. He is kicked and beaten unmercifully. After a day or two of this kind of treatment he is moun-ed from the limb of a tree with a rope around the waist and left to swing in mid air. He is abused and beaten still more. If he does not succumb and die under this torture he is released in case the ill person recovers; but if the ill person for whom he was condemned dies, he is cut down and mired with a long needle in the abdomen several times, and the stoned to death by the surrounding villagers.
Members of his immediate family even at times joining in the killing. His body is then buried or cast into a river. This is supposed to rid the community of the evil spirit which caused the illness and death of the person for whom he was condemned.
I saw," said Pastor Peterson, "several children who had been rescued by white settlers from meeting death this way on my last trip to the region."

Obituary.

WM. C. PEARCE.

It is with feelings of sincere regret that the Telegram has to chronicle to-day the passing of William Creswell Pearce, which sad event occurred on Saturday night, after an illness of over twelve months duration. Last spring the deceased was subjected to a severe illness; and after he had recovered and gained sufficient strength, medical aid was sought in Boston, an operation was performed, and a rapid recovery was hoped for. Shortly after he returned home the malady again overtook him, and for several months past he has been confined to his bed, where he lingered until the final summons came. The deceased was the second son of the late Aubyn Pearce, former Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages. After his father's death he succeeded him in that office, for a short period, and was then transferred to the Department of Public Works, where he served for a quarter of a century. Two years ago he was appointed the Department Purchasing Agent, which he held up to the time of his death. Mr. Wm. Pearce was a well known figure in the community.
His position in the Civil Service brought him into close touch with people all over the Island, and there are many who will regret to learn of his passing. In his early days, football and cricket were his favorite pastimes, and in later life he was one of our best billiard players. In billiard tournaments of recent years he took a leading part. The deceased was a popular member of the Masonic Club, having been a member for many years standing, and a Past Warden of St.
John's Lodge. He leaves to mourn a fond and loving mother; two sisters, Misses Fannie and Eleanor, and one brother, Sidney, to whom will go out the sympathy of the whole community. The funeral takes place to-morrow at 2.30 p.m., from 159 Gower St., to the C. of E. Cemetery.

MRS. J. NUNNS.

An estimable lady in the person of Mrs. J. Nunn, wife of Capt. J. Nunn, M.C., entered into eternal rest at 6 o'- clock yesterday morning, after an illness of long duration. The deceased lady was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Robertson, Long's Hill, and was married about three years ago. Her passing has brought sorrow, not only to the home, but to a large circle of friends who knew her. Mrs. Nunn was a prominent member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and before her death was prominently identified with the affairs of the church, both socially and otherwise, and in this her passing will be greatly regretted. She was of a most warm hearted disposition, kind and loving to all, and her place in the Church will be hard to fill. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband and parents, two sisters, Mrs. George Marshall, and Mrs. D. Carmichael; and one brother, Stanley, of the Royal Bank, New York. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30 from her late residence, to the General Protestant Cemetery.
