

F. H. BUTLER, STOCK BROKER.

Stocks, Bonds, Grain and Provisions bought and sold for cash or on margin. Bond for vest pocket money. Long distance Phone, 178 OFFICE—Tremont House, London.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Toronto Stock Market. TORONTO, Oct. 2.

Montreal	125 1/2	125 1/2
Ottawa	125 1/2	125 1/2
Quebec	125 1/2	125 1/2
Calcutta	125 1/2	125 1/2
London	125 1/2	125 1/2
Paris	125 1/2	125 1/2
Bombay	125 1/2	125 1/2
Rangoon	125 1/2	125 1/2
Singapore	125 1/2	125 1/2
Manila	125 1/2	125 1/2
Cebu	125 1/2	125 1/2
Iloilo	125 1/2	125 1/2
San Francisco	125 1/2	125 1/2
San Pedro de Macoris	125 1/2	125 1/2
Santiago	125 1/2	125 1/2
Medan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Batavia	125 1/2	125 1/2
Sourabaya	125 1/2	125 1/2
Amoy	125 1/2	125 1/2
Swatow	125 1/2	125 1/2
Hankow	125 1/2	125 1/2
Shanghai	125 1/2	125 1/2
Peking	125 1/2	125 1/2
Tientsin	125 1/2	125 1/2
Harbin	125 1/2	125 1/2
Manchuria	125 1/2	125 1/2
North China	125 1/2	125 1/2
South China	125 1/2	125 1/2
Yunnan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Szechwan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Hubei	125 1/2	125 1/2
Shensi	125 1/2	125 1/2
Shanxi	125 1/2	125 1/2
Henan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Hebei	125 1/2	125 1/2
Inner Mongolia	125 1/2	125 1/2
Outer Mongolia	125 1/2	125 1/2
Manchuria	125 1/2	125 1/2
North China	125 1/2	125 1/2
South China	125 1/2	125 1/2
Yunnan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Szechwan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Hubei	125 1/2	125 1/2
Shensi	125 1/2	125 1/2
Shanxi	125 1/2	125 1/2
Henan	125 1/2	125 1/2
Hebei	125 1/2	125 1/2
Inner Mongolia	125 1/2	125 1/2
Outer Mongolia	125 1/2	125 1/2

Strong's Drug Store

—FOR PURITY,
—ACCURACY AND
—DISPATCH,
TELEPHONE 56
A prompt delivery to all parts of the city.

W. T. STRONG & CO.
DISPENSING CHEMISTS,
184 Dundas St., London.

Latest Probabilities.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—10 a.m.—Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region: Moderate to fresh easterly winds; fair; not much change in temperature.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

—Dr. Nelles, dentist, has removed his office to his residence, corner Ridout and Bruce streets, South London.

—Albert J. Elson, son of ex-Warden Elson, left on Monday morning to pursue his studies at Toronto University.

—James Butts was placed in the cells this afternoon, charged with being drunk and disorderly, and assaulting P. C. Thomas Howie.

—Messrs. Dayton & McCormick opened the season last evening with the largest number of registered pupils in the history of the academy.

—Mr. George Cooke and Miss Mary E. Clark, two popular young Londoners, were married in Hamilton on Saturday.

—The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Atkins. A reception was held after the ceremony, at the residence of the groom's brother, 429 Mary street, in that city.

—Mr. Thomas H. Hill, son of Thomas Hill, Tecumseh avenue, South London, who left for West Africa as a missionary nearly seven years ago, is returning with his wife to England for medical attendance, on account of ill-health, where they expect to spend the winter. They will come here in the spring to visit Mr. Hill's parents and many friends, who will be glad to welcome him home.

—The police want an owner for a Dominion bicycle, found in the alleyway, behind the mattress factory on York street. The wheel has been in the alley since Saturday.

—VAGRANT GETS NINE MONTHS. Wm. Coulter, 49 years of age, was lodged in jail last night by County Constable James Maguire. Coulter was sentenced by Magistrate E. B. Smith, of North Middlesex, to nine months in the Central Prison for vagrancy.

—COURTY COURT. A sitting of the county court without a jury was held this afternoon before Judge Edward Elliott. In the case of Dewar vs. McKellar, to recover on a debt, a verdict was given the plaintiff for $218.85. The case of Dewar vs. McKellar, a suit on a bill bond, was postponed till Oct. 10, and the case of the London Baseball Club vs. Worcester Baseball Club, to recover $200 damages for breach of contract was postponed till Oct. 18.

—POLICE COURT. At the police court this morning, Charles Andrews, a youth, pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing a watch from a soldier at Wolsley Barracks. Andrews was remanded till tomorrow morning, when he will be sentenced on this charge, and another of housebreaking, to which he pleaded guilty over a week ago.

A disorderly character was fined $5 and $25 costs, or 21 days in jail. Another was fined $1 and two were discharged.

BRITISH ELECTIONS

The Conservatives Gain a Seat in Galway.

London, Oct. 2.—The election in Galway city yesterday resulted in another Conservative gain. The Hon. Martin Morris polled 832 votes against 763 polled by Mr. F. Leamy (Nationalist).

The Unionists have gained three seats, and the Liberals one seat. Up to 6 o'clock this evening the total number of members elected was 179, as follows: Unionists, 145; Liberals, 16; Nationalists, 18.

A WARNING!

German-Americans May Refuse to Support McKinley.

Berlin, Oct. 2.—The Berliner Tageblatt says: "We undertake to advise President McKinley that he cannot have the German-American vote unless he changes his Chinese policy."

Thursday Evening's Attractions. On Thursday evening Messrs. Grafton & Co., the well-known clothiers, of No. 158 Dundas street, will hold their grand fall opening. A full orchestra will be present from 7 to 10 p.m., and will render an enjoyable programme of popular and classic music. Messrs. Grafton will have on exhibition one of the complete assortments of men's, boys' and children's clothing for fall wear ever seen in London. The reputation of this firm's product is so high that it needs little or no commendation. Every garment turned out by this firm has the union label, the highest possible guarantee of excellence and intelligence of workmanship. The citizens of London are cordially urged to take advantage of the firm's invitation and be present at the opening on Thursday night. Mr. J. M. Hickey, the popular manager of the London branch, and his efficient staff, will be on hand to welcome all.

CITY'S WEALTH AND POPULATION

Assessment Commissioner's Final Returns for Six Wards and Four Wards—Satisfactory Increase.

Assessment Commissioner Grant and his staff of assistants have completed their task of taking the census and making the assessment of the city. The work has taken five months. The returns show an increase in population of 157. It must be remembered, though, that there are considerably more than 100 able-bodied men away in South Africa and at the Halifax garrison. Taking this matter into consideration the increase is nearly the same as that of 1900 over 1899, which amounted to 327. The direct increase in the assessment totals $176,534. This increase is made even after the amount excluded by reason of the street railway exemptions and the tax on insurance and other companies have been deducted. Were these properties not exempted, the increase would amount to nearly $375,000.

According to wards, only No. 1 shows a decrease, and the most remarkable increase is found in No. 4 ward, which has gone upward nearly $100,000. This, in Mr. Grant's opinion, has been done at the expense of the other wards.

The statement of this year is prepared according to the four new wards, as well as the old six. The following tables of figures speak for themselves:

TOTAL RECAPITULATION.

	1900.	1901.
No. 1 ward	6,321	6,243
No. 2 ward	5,944	5,950
No. 3 ward	2,116	2,102
No. 4 ward	6,666	6,763
No. 5 ward	7,532	7,532
No. 6 ward	5,081	6,769
Totals	38,902	39,059

RECAPITULATION.

	1900.	1901.
No. 1 ward	$4,579,708	$4,594,242
No. 2 ward	4,220,983	4,273,168
No. 3 ward	1,397,320	1,397,320
No. 4 ward	2,827,959	2,926,498
No. 5 ward	1,842,902	1,888,992
No. 6 ward	1,518,584	1,562,619
Totals	$17,465,151	$17,821,619

The itemized statement for No. 6 ward is the only two not already published is:

	1900.	1901.
Real	$1,712,652	$1,732,892
Machinery	22,000	22,000
Income	7,950	7,950
Total	$1,842,902	$1,888,992

No. 6—

	1900.	1901.
Real	$1,481,736	$1,526,219
Machinery	400	400
Personal	23,350	24,200
Income	13,033	12,200
Total	$1,518,584	$1,562,619

According to the four wards, the recapitulation is as follows: For population—No. 1, 6,343; No. 2, 5,950; No. 3, 2,102; No. 4, 6,763; No. 5, 7,532; No. 6, 6,769. For real estate—No. 1, $4,579,708; No. 2, $4,220,983; No. 3, $1,397,320; No. 4, $2,827,959; No. 5, $1,842,902; No. 6, $1,518,584. For machinery—No. 1, $22,000; No. 2, $22,000; No. 3, $22,000; No. 4, $22,000; No. 5, $22,000; No. 6, $22,000. For income—No. 1, $7,950; No. 2, $7,950; No. 3, $7,950; No. 4, $7,950; No. 5, $7,950; No. 6, $7,950. For total—No. 1, $17,465,151; No. 2, $17,821,619.

—The following resolution of condolence has been presented to Mrs. R. J. C. Dawson, on the death of her husband, ex-Postmaster Dawson, which occurred in London, England, on Sept. 23 last:

"Dear Mrs. Dawson, We, who were the League of your husband on the board of directors of the Birkbeck Loan Company desire to express, however feebly, our deep sense of the irreparable loss which we, in particular, and the shareholders of the company in general, have suffered by the death of the man whose untimely death—of the president of the board. So far as the shareholders of the company are concerned, they have lost, and can never replace, the ripe judgment, the deliberate thought, the careful calculation, which the president always exhibited in dealing with the affairs of the company. Not only in questions of policy, but in matters of detail, his watchful oversight, his prompt foresight, his result and possibilities, peculiarly fitted him for the onerous duties which devolved upon him, and which he so cheerfully and conscientiously and ably performed.

"His fellow-directors and the office staff can never forget his urbane and welcome presence, his kindly greeting, his friendly intercourse and his ever-ready help and guidance. From the inception of the company he was always the same. Even when every moment was filled with the important duties of his high official position, he was never impatient when disturbed by even the humblest member of the staff on matters pertaining to the welfare of the company, and of men, his influence, and his keen business insight were always and ungrudgingly placed at their disposal.

"And in our personal relations we cannot better characterize him, or in terms which he could hear them, would be most grateful to himself, than to say that in all our intercourse with him, he consistently evinced the highest sense of duty and the highest sense of honor, and the highest sense of sympathy with you and your children in the affliction which has overtaken you. We can only offer you sympathy, consolation, and the assurance that the Father of us all will give for it his hand which has dealt the blow. Here our hearts ache and we mourn in sorrow and regret, but in the Paradise of God there is a new inhabitant. Believe us, dear Mrs. Dawson, your sincere friends, W. H. Wortman, vice-president; W. S. Bryers Barkwell, treasurer; T. H. Luscombe, secretary."

"Bryan's house in Lincoln, Neb., is next door to No. 182, and the door to 16 to 1 is where he will stay, too—Detroit Free Press."

TO A CAREFUL DRUGGIST

Is where you should take your prescription. We fill prescriptions exactly as written, not deviating a hair-breadth either in QUANTITY OR PURITY. The best only is good enough. Filling family recipes a specialty. We call for and deliver prescriptions to all parts of the city. TELEPHONE 62.

A. J. LOGAN,
Dispensing Chemist and Optician,
Successor to
268 Dundas Street.
Barkwell.

IN OLD VIRGINIA

The Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows.

Some Interesting Information—Candidates Prominent Among the Officers—Interview With Dr. O. T. Campbell—Growth of the Society.

A representative of The Advertiser requested from Dr. O. T. Campbell some information about the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, lately held in Richmond, Va., of which body the doctor was for several years the chief officer, having been the only Canadian ever elected to that position. Replying to the remark that the information sought would be of interest to our readers who were members of the society, especially as there had been very little in the public press on the subject, he said that the society did no advertising, and made no special effort to publish its affairs; it had grown too large for that sort of thing. "What is its membership now?" was asked.

"In round numbers 1,100,000. Of these over 1,000,000 are in the United States, 40,000 in Canada, 2,000 in Australasia, 5,000 in Germany, the remainder in other countries in Europe and America. There are only a few in Asia, none in Africa, nor are there any in Great Britain. Its net increase for 1899, that being the last year for which we have complete returns, was 42,000. "A body of that size ought to be in a position to do considerable work." "Naturally, with a revenue of nearly $10,000,000, it has ample facilities for carrying on its benevolent enterprises. It spends now nearly $4,000,000 each year in the relief of distress, in aiding its members in sickness, and in caring for their families in bereavement. Its work in numbers and in wealth has been continuous; and its charitable expenditures have kept pace with its growth. Its records show an outlay of $35,000,000 for relief; its subsidiaries have expended funds of over $25,000,000. It operates some 40 homes for orphans and for aged members; and it publishes some 60 magazines and papers for the use of its members."

"Quite so; especially as to the satisfaction felt in reviewing the success of the work. So far as the work of the body was concerned, there was no radical legislation of any kind. It is a conservative body, and does not make changes hastily. The chief interest attached to the session was the election of officers. The new head of the society, the Hon. A. C. Cable, of Ohio, formerly a senator of his state, is a practical Oddfellow, and ex-officio a member of the membership. His deputy, who will conduct the body, is a man of great ability and success in 1902, is the Hon. John B. Goodwin, a prominent lawyer of Atlanta, Georgia, and a leader of men in his state. The secretary and treasurer were re-elected as usual."

"What position do the Canadian members hold in your grand lodge?" "There are only fifteen Canadians in a membership of about 200, but they usually occupy a creditable position, and would be far more influential if their constituencies would not change representatives so often. In all legislative matters a man requires to gain experience. So far as the work of the body was concerned, there was no radical legislation of any kind. It is a conservative body, and does not make changes hastily. The chief interest attached to the session was the election of officers. The new head of the society, the Hon. A. C. Cable, of Ohio, formerly a senator of his state, is a practical Oddfellow, and ex-officio a member of the membership. His deputy, who will conduct the body, is a man of great ability and success in 1902, is the Hon. John B. Goodwin, a prominent lawyer of Atlanta, Georgia, and a leader of men in his state. The secretary and treasurer were re-elected as usual."

"What position do the Canadian members hold in your grand lodge?" "There are only fifteen Canadians in a membership of about 200, but they usually occupy a creditable position, and would be far more influential if their constituencies would not change representatives so often. In all legislative matters a man requires to gain experience. So far as the work of the body was concerned, there was no radical legislation of any kind. It is a conservative body, and does not make changes hastily. The chief interest attached to the session was the election of officers. The new head of the society, the Hon. A. C. Cable, of Ohio, formerly a senator of his state, is a practical Oddfellow, and ex-officio a member of the membership. His deputy, who will conduct the body, is a man of great ability and success in 1902, is the Hon. John B. Goodwin, a prominent lawyer of Atlanta, Georgia, and a leader of men in his state. The secretary and treasurer were re-elected as usual."

"What position do the Canadian members hold in your grand lodge?" "There are only fifteen Canadians in a membership of about 200, but they usually occupy a creditable position, and would be far more influential if their constituencies would not change representatives so often. In all legislative matters a man requires to gain experience. So far as the work of the body was concerned, there was no radical legislation of any kind. It is a conservative body, and does not make changes hastily. The chief interest attached to the session was the election of officers. The new head of the society, the Hon. A. C. Cable, of Ohio, formerly a senator of his state, is a practical Oddfellow, and ex-officio a member of the membership. His deputy, who will conduct the body, is a man of great ability and success in 1902, is the Hon. John B. Goodwin, a prominent lawyer of Atlanta, Georgia, and a leader of men in his state. The secretary and treasurer were re-elected as usual."

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

Presented to Mrs. R. J. C. Dawson by the Directors of the Birkbeck Loan Company.

The following resolution of condolence has been presented to Mrs. R. J. C. Dawson, on the death of her husband, ex-Postmaster Dawson, which occurred in London, England, on Sept. 23 last:

"Dear Mrs. Dawson, We, who were the League of your husband on the board of directors of the Birkbeck Loan Company desire to express, however feebly, our deep sense of the irreparable loss which we, in particular, and the shareholders of the company in general, have suffered by the death of the man whose untimely death—of the president of the board. So far as the shareholders of the company are concerned, they have lost, and can never replace, the ripe judgment, the deliberate thought, the careful calculation, which the president always exhibited in dealing with the affairs of the company. Not only in questions of policy, but in matters of detail, his watchful oversight, his prompt foresight, his result and possibilities, peculiarly fitted him for the onerous duties which devolved upon him, and which he so cheerfully and conscientiously and ably performed.

"His fellow-directors and the office staff can never forget his urbane and welcome presence, his kindly greeting, his friendly intercourse and his ever-ready help and guidance. From the inception of the company he was always the same. Even when every moment was filled with the important duties of his high official position, he was never impatient when disturbed by even the humblest member of the staff on matters pertaining to the welfare of the company, and of men, his influence, and his keen business insight were always and ungrudgingly placed at their disposal.

"And in our personal relations we cannot better characterize him, or in terms which he could hear them, would be most grateful to himself, than to say that in all our intercourse with him, he consistently evinced the highest sense of duty and the highest sense of honor, and the highest sense of sympathy with you and your children in the affliction which has overtaken you. We can only offer you sympathy, consolation, and the assurance that the Father of us all will give for it his hand which has dealt the blow. Here our hearts ache and we mourn in sorrow and regret, but in the Paradise of God there is a new inhabitant. Believe us, dear Mrs. Dawson, your sincere friends, W. H. Wortman, vice-president; W. S. Bryers Barkwell, treasurer; T. H. Luscombe, secretary."

"Bryan's house in Lincoln, Neb., is next door to No. 182, and the door to 16 to 1 is where he will stay, too—Detroit Free Press."

Special Prices for the Week

Bailey's Planes, Disston's Saws, All Kinds Carpenters' Tools.

Royal American and Royal Canadian Wringers at each.....$2 50
Washing Machines, each.....$3 00 to $4 50
Carpet Sweepers, each.....$2 00 to $3 00
ROGERS "1847" KNIVES, FORKS AND SPOONS.

COWAN'S HARDWARE,

127 Dundas Street, London.

residences—stately and substantial. It is a city full of interest to the student of history. As the capital of the oldest colony in America it has many relics of colonial and revolutionary days. There is the little stone building on Main street, supposed to have been Washington's headquarters for a time. There is the little St. John's Church where the House of Burgesses met, and the pew is still pointed out where Patrick Henry stood and made a certain treasonable speech, which has been declared by many a school boy since. There is the capitol building, the oldest state house, I believe, in existence. But the chief interest in Richmond centers around the fact that it was the capital of the Confederacy. The air is redolent of the 'lost cause.' On one side of the city is a bronze equestrian statue of George Washington, and on the other a tall monument stands in memory of the private soldiers who wore the gray. There is the house where President Davis lived; the office where he worked; the telegraph from Lee telling him that all was over. There is the building where the Confederate Congress met; the remains of Libby prison, where the Federal prisoners passed the weary days of night; but the most pathetic sight of all, the home where the old, war-worn veterans of Virginia are sheltered and cared for by the charity of the state. A few miles down the river, at Frying Pan Gap, where Gen. Butler cut a new channel; near by, at Seven Pines, where a hotly-contested battle was fought. The people do not talk a great deal about the war unless they are asked, but they have not forgotten it, though 35 years have passed since Lee surrendered. The bitterness of defeat has passed, and they have accepted the situation; but they do not regret what they did. As an old soldier told me, "If I had my life to live over, I would go through it all again."

"The south is prosperous now, is it not?" "In the cities, and wherever northern capital has come to develop the natural resources, I have no doubt that there is greater prosperity than before the war. But so far as I could see of the country through which I passed, there is a great deal of poverty. The people are unkempt; their houses out of repair; their farms slovenly and poorly cultivated. Of course, many of the shanties in the country are occupied by negroes, who are not in love with work, but the whites are in as poor a condition. There seems little of the thrift and energy that we see at home. And yet it is not always the fault of the people; they are carrying on a burden too heavy for them. The crops the farmers raise are doubly mortgaged before they go to market. There is a mortgage on the crop to get the money for the seed; and generally a mortgage to pay for fertilizer and other material. When the mortgages are discharged the farmer may be very thankful if he has anything left to keep him alive till the next planting season comes. There is much in the south to attract a visitor. The better classes of the people are charming; the climate is delightful; the soil is productive; opportunities for profitable investment are numerous. But a Canadian can't help but be very well satisfied with his home, he might go farther and fare much worse."

Amusements.

"SNOVLHVS".

John Griffith, when whom no actor is a more welcome visitor to this city, is the attraction at the London Opera House tonight, in Dr. Baird's famous play of gladiatorial life, "Spartacus." Roman history, which abounds in dramatic incidents, has been the subject of valor and heroism, knows no more thrilling and heroic episodes than those surrounding the revolt of the slaves under the valiant leadership of the gladiator Spartacus. The story of this hero who rebelled at Rome's command to slay his brother in the arena which almost threatened the mastery of the empire, forms one of the most powerful dramas. The play will be presented here with every detail of scenic environment.

LAST SEASON'S CONSPICUOUS SUCCESS.

Hennessy Leroy, who has achieved great fame in the up-to-date comedy, "Old People's Money," will appear at the London Opera House next Thursday, matinee and night, supported by a company of remarkable strength. The story is most laughable, acquainting us with a clerk who elopes with his millionaire employer's daughter, who the parents desire to have wedded to another—a rich, but exceedingly distasteful, old hag dealer. The plan of elopement is carried out at the instigation of the girl's father, who fails to discover that his own daughter is to be the heroine of the romance until all is over. In the company supporting Mr. Leroy is Miss May Sargent, whose clever impersonation of Tietia Van Sittart, the scheming coquette, is pleasantly remembered from last season.

COMPLETES THE CHAIN.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—Mr. Patrick O'Brien, housekeeper at the parliament buildings, has a picture which he prizes highly, because of the death of Hon. A. M. Ross, on Saturday. It was a picture of the Ontario cabinet, taken in 1887, of the sixth parliament of the province of Ontario. Dr. Baxter was speaker at the time. In the photograph Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. A. S. Hardy and Hon. George W. Ross were all to the right in the order named. To the left hand there were Hon. J. R. Pardee, Hon. C. F. Fraser and Hon. A. M. Ross. By a strange coincidence the men to the right have all held the premiership in the order, while death has removed each of the men to the left in the order in which they are in the picture. Hon. A. M. Ross' demise completing the chain.

"That measly cad from Yankeland I'll now proceed to crush." And on the face of the Prince of Wales There came a royal flush.

LOST—FRIDAY NIGHT—CUFF CON- TAINING link stud, diamond setting, old design. Reward. Address F. this office.

Eyes

Tiring Easily

Prove

Eyestrain.

Do not wait until serious trouble develops.

Have the strain removed.

The sooner the easier.

Properly adjusted glasses will do it.

We have made a special study of the subject.

N. I. McDermid,

Druggist and Optician,

Corner Dundas and Wellington Streets.

WE'LL CONVINCE YOU

If you have any doubt about the quality of our coal, we'd like to convince you—not by argument, but by the coal itself. It is clean, burns without waste and heats perfectly.

DALY, 19 York St. Phone 343.

Fall Overcoats.

If yours is soiled or needs pressing, bring it in. We make clothes look as good as new. Phone 601.

Stockwell's Dye Works,

209 DUNDAS STREET.

FRIEND'S

Regular Dinner 20c.

PROMPT SERVICE.

DUNDAS STREET, NEAR TALBOT

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT A court will be held, pursuant to the 10th section of the Act in relation to the county of the county of Middlesex, at Mr. Brydges, on Monday, the 8th day of October, 1901, at 10 o'clock a.m., to hear and determine the several complaints of errors and omissions in the voters list of the municipality of Toronto for 1900. The persons having business at the court are required to attend at the said time and place. Dated this 28th day of September, A. D. 1901. C. H. Lockwood, clerk of court.

TOO BAD! TOO BAD!

But good for you are the big reductions to be given all this week on the Bargain-Apolis bankrupt stock of general dry-goods. Up-to-date millinery at great slaughter prices—seasonable goods, too. Money in this sale for you

James F. Hunt & Sons'

Bed and