OPENING DAY AT HAMILTON. Hamilton, Ont., June 5.-The Hamilton Jockey Club was favored with fine weather and a fast track for the opening day of its spring meeting. About people, including 350 who came up by special train from Toronto, attended the opening. The six events deep so were all well contested, there being garded. few scratches. Starter Ware came in for a lot of adverse comment for leaving Beguile and Free Advice at the post in the fourth race, and the betting public demanded that it be declared no race. In the fifth race the starter had a very big contract, with fifteen starters, but all got away to a splendid start. Thirteen book-makers were kept busy handling the money. and came out considerably ahead on the day's business. Caverillo, the favorite, at 4 to 5, in the first race, carried most of the money, but was never a dangerous factor, Erwin and Yemen fighting it out in the stretch, the former having the necessary speed. In the second event, Sterling Silver, at 40 to 1, who carried very little money, won in a driving finish over The Copper. Lizzie McCarthy led all the way in the 7 furlong event, and won in a drive over Lizzie Kelly. In the fourth event, at one mile, Alice Farley made the pace for half the distance, when Gold Lace took her up, but was challenged by Flag of Truce in the stretch, the latter beating the gelding half a length. Beguile and Free Advice were left at the post. Kinney had the steeplechase event well in hand all the way, and won handily. Nicholas and Excitus threw their riders and dropped out. The last event was well contested, Momentum showing the way to the stretch, Sir Blaze beating him out to the wire. Sum-

FISTIC Philadelphia, June 5.—George Dixon, the ex-champion feather-weight of the world, and Tim Callahan, a clever feather-weight, of this city, fought six of the liveliest kinds of rounds at the Penn Art Athletic Club last night. and Callahan surprised everyone by the strong fight he put up. The local man had slightly the better of Dixon in point of aggressiveness and fast fighting. Callahan fought from the beginning to the end. He had no trouble in landing on the colored lad. Dixon did not fight with his usual good form, but managed to land his famous left swing three times during the six rounds.

Congratulatory Address To Be Forwarded to the Queen-Much Enthusiasm Over the News of Pretoria's Fall-Recommendations.

St. Marys, June 5. - The Methodist Conference assembled in the methodist Church in this town at 2 o'clock this afternoon. This is known as the ministerial session for the discussion of matters specially connected with the pastoral office, and ministers only are members. The full conference will assemble on Thursday morning for the transaction of general business, when and take part. A feeling of sadness pervaded the conference, as they missed the fa-miliar face and presence of their beloved president, Rev. Joseph Edge, who has been so recently called away by death. It is the first time in the history of the London Conference that a president has died during the term of his office, and the unusual character of the occasion increased the deep solemnity with which it was re-

According to provision made in the case, the ex-president, Rev. Walter Rigsby, opened the session and conducted the business. The session was opened as usual with devotional exercises, in course of which touching references were made to the late president, and earnest prayer offered for the widow and fatherless children who mourned his loss.

The roll was then called and ministens answered to their names. The secretary read the report of the transfer committee as it affected this conference. It was remarkable for the paucity of the names it contained. Only one was mentioned. Rev. Robt. Sanderson was transferred into the

Both mover and seconder made eloquent addresses, breathing the loyal sentiments of the address.

Patriotic addresses were also made by Rev. J. R. Gundy and Rev. J. V. Smith, D. D. The conference carried the resolution by a standing vote, and as they stood to vote, sang again the "National Anthem."

Rev. J. W. Holmes moved and Rev.

R. Whiting seconded, a resolution of congratulation to Gen. Lord Roberts upon the splendid achievements of British arms under his leadership.

In the evening the annual lecture, under the auspices of the Theological Union, took place in the church. Rev. E. Medd, president of the union, presided, and Rev. John Kenner led in prayer. The efficient choir of the church was present and contributed to the interest and pleasure of the evening. The lecturer was Rev. Dr. Saunders, of London. His subject was: "Some mis-His subject was: "Some mis-takes and perils of the higher criticism from a preacher's standpoint."
The lecture was thoughtfully conceived and eloquently expressed, and reflected credit upon the scholarly lecturer, and ministered to the delight and profit of the audience, composed of the ministers of the conference and a large number of people of the town.
