SPECULATION AS TO NEW CLERK

Position-Mr. Edwards' Appointment Legal, 'Tis Said.

The speculation as to who will succeed City Clerk Edwards was renewed with increased vigor today, Mr. Edwards having cinched the appointment of public school inspector last night: Today Mr. McCutcheon, the high school teacher, who is hustling for the position, is said to be the favorite now, though Mr. James Bell, Hops (in London)—Pacific coast strong, it he throws himself into the contest, will be sure to prove a formidable opponent for any and all competitors for the position. It is admitted around the city hall today that the appointment of Mr. Edwards to the school inspectorship was perfectly legal, and that the attempt to block the proceedings was an impotent one. The board of education appears to be divided into two factions now, and Chairman MacRobert is the leader of the more powerful of the two. This is not the first time a clash has occurred, and it will not be the last.

Those, however, who were expecting that the band would give some selections while on the street, were disappointed, for the band had very little time in which to get their dinner and proceed to the > time in resting. After their performances in this city they will take a night train for the west. The annual banquet of the Manhattan Club was held last night. Nearly every member of the club was present and a most enjoyable time was spent. A euchre match was won by Mr. F. Yates, and the booby prize went to W. Tibbs. The president made a neat little speech, in which he reported that the club was going ahead in every possible way. A musical programme was given by Messrs. Ham and Riley, and
