Throwing shoes at weddings after a newly-married couple on their departure for the honeymoon originated in the old Jewish custom of handing to the purchaser of land an old shoe as a token of surrender or renunciation. The bride's father gave a shoe to the husband, or threw it after him, to signify they surrendered to him all authority over their daughter.

The Molino (Cape Colony) farmers have hit upon a novel plan for dealing with locusts. A farmer has imported some eagle kites for the purpose of scouring locusts from the crops. Mexico has now in operation a metallic cartridge factory, with a daily capacity of 50,000 cartridges. The factory, which was constructed on the historic plains of the Molina del Rey, contains machinery of the best model in the world.

The United States Government is experimenting in San Francisco Bay with a buoy bearing three huge wings of corrugated iron sheeting, which echo the whistles of steam vessels. It is believed it will prove as effective in a fog as though the buoy itself furnished the noise. Since its introduction into the English protectorate of Uganda in 1901 the sleeping sickness has killed no fewer than 200,000 out of a total population of 300,000.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS FITTING GLASSES
The head of our concern, who personally supervises the optical work, has tested eyes and fitted spectacles for that many years. He has always kept abreast of the times, and there are very few cases come under our notice the nature of which has not a parallel in his past experience. Thoroughness is what has given us our present enviable standing as opticians.

—Wednesday, Feb. 24, will be the first day of the Lenten season. —The Bishop of Huron has appointed Rev. F. K. Hughes, of Theford, to be incumbent of the parish of Courtwright. It is expected he will assume the duties of his new position about the middle of March.

Mr. Wilson's Condition.
The condition of Mr. Nicholas Wilson shows no change. Mr. Wilson had a very restless night, but seems no worse than he was yesterday, when a slight improvement was noticed.

Formerly Stationed Here.
The funeral of Staff Captain Mantion of the Salvation Army, formerly of London, was held in Toronto on Wednesday afternoon, and was very largely attended. The funeral services were conducted by Commissioner Coombs. Interment was made in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto.

New "Sky Pieces."
Brantford Expositor: Three members of the police force have been ordered to report to receive new helmets. The members who will thus sport new headgear are P. C. Boylan, Kerr, and Borthwick. The ordinary life of the helmet, it might be interesting to note, is 20 years.

A Surprise Party.

BELTZ
PRACTICAL FURRIER.

C. Wright, a former resident of this city, the sad event occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. R. Hamilton, 535 Cass avenue, Detroit, on Feb. 9, in her 87th year. Many of the old citizens will remember the deceased lady and her husband, as they resided here for many years. The other members of the family left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother are Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. John W. Rowell, Mrs. Charles R. Baxter, Mrs. A. A. McDonald, Mrs. John Bell and Mrs. O. S. Benson, all of Detroit; Mrs. J. Jackson, of this city; Wm. A. Wright, Bay City, Mich., and Mrs. Frank T. Lewis, of La Jolla, Colorado.

A Correction.
Through an error, Mr. R. J. Donaghy, the well-known local grocer, who spoke at the association's banquet on Wednesday night, was made to say that he believed in "knocking" and not in "boosting." Donaghy said that he believed in "boosting" and not in "knocking."

London People.
Hamilton Spectator: Chief Smith has received a communication from London, Ont., intimating that the right name of Mrs. E. Smalley, a well-known colored lady, wife of a former porter on the C. P. R., and who died here some twelve years ago. He was about 35 years of age, and was well known to the mother of the deceased. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond brooch and to the groomsmen a diamond stick pin. The bride was inherited the estate in her travelling gown of royal blue. The happy couple left last night for London and other points west.

Heirs to Property.
Word has been received here from the Klondike of the death of Ernest Smalley, a former resident of this city. Mr. Smalley was the only son of the late Mrs. E. Smalley, a well-known colored lady, wife of a former porter on the C. P. R., and who died here some twelve years ago. He was about 35 years of age, and was well known to the mother of the deceased. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond brooch and to the groomsmen a diamond stick pin. The bride was inherited the estate in her travelling gown of royal blue. The happy couple left last night for London and other points west.
