

THE CITY AND VICINITY.

THE DAILY ROUND OF LIFE IN AND ABOUT TORONTO.

What the People are Doing and Thinking About. Brief Notes Gathered Everywhere by World Reporters.

The town was full of them last night. We mean drunks. Rev. W. S. Rainford donated $50 to the P. E. divinity school fund.

The World continues to devote and secure hearty approbation to Toronto and Queen streets.

The bishop of Toronto has decided to call the synod of the diocese together on Tuesday, the 14th of September.

There was a small crowd at the Grimshy camp ground yesterday. Talmage don't draw equal to expectations.

The Queen street Primitive Methodist Sunday school went to Lorne park yesterday for their annual excursion.

A 15-year-old daughter of Mr. Perry, of the Woodbine house, left her home Tuesday, and has not been heard of since.

Over five hundred excursionists were in town from Indiana yesterday. The corn crackers looked pretty tired and dusty.

The children and teachers of the Queen street Primitive Methodist church enjoyed their annual picnic at Lorne park yesterday afternoon.

Timothy Downey, the boy accused of larceny from Mr. Fitzgerald, a York street hotel keeper, was remanded yesterday, but being released.

The cases of Charlotte Patch and Della Sheppard, a Queen's theatre actress, and the cross case of Sheppard v. Patch, have been adjourned until the 29th.

The fire at 3:30 yesterday morning was at the Toronto, Grey & Bruce railway yard. A load of wood was burned and two flat cars injured to the extent of $400.

Della Sheppard, the Queen's theatre actress, and Julia Patch had their cases adjourned at the police court yesterday, but after the court adjourned they withdrew them, paying the costs.

A couple of wife-beating cases were disposed of at yesterday's police court. Thomas Alexander Stone was fined $2 and costs or thirty days. Thomas Foster was fined $5 and costs or thirty days.

This is the way the Globe maltreats an advertisement for a wet-nurse which somebody gives it.

URSUS VEZOR—OR A PERSON TO PARTLY nurse a baby. Apply to 283 Carlton street.

A young dilettante came into the World office last night to ask our critic to pitch into some of the performers in "The World" for saying "di-monds" is right. He maintained that "di-monds" is right. Is it?

A young man giving his name as John Jackson was last night held at No. 2 station disorderly conduct on Albert street. The prisoner was well dressed and had about $10 on him. The police think he has given them a wrong name.

Miss Jessie Freeman, a niece of Governor Freeman, is a member of the "Needles and Pins" combination, which appears at the Royal opera house next week. She is said to be one of the handsomest young ladies on the American stage.

At the Hunter a day or two ago a man named Price went out to do stonework and locked his children in the house. A young fellow named Wright came and told him the house was on fire, and he went back just in time to save his lives.

Two heavy swells came lively on King street last night by a hand-to-hand encounter between themselves. They fought like dogs until a newspaper man came along and made good use of the blocks of the rounds. Then they made themselves scarce.

Mr. Grau, agent of Miss Kate Glassford's company, and Mr. Hawley, manager of Daly's "Needles and Pins" combination, are in the city attending to the business of their respective companies, both of which will engage at the Royal opera house next week.

Mr. John Hall, police officer, has a Siberian crab tree in his garden on St. Vincent street which is quite a curiosity. The tree is well laden with fruit, and also bears a number of fresh and pretty-looking blossoms, which is something unusual at this season of the year.

James Conlin has brought an action in the C. P. division of the high court of justice against Lawrence Hartigan, to recover $504 for six years' rent on premises No. 271 Front street east. The parties do not get on well together, and several cases between them are pending at the police court.

The managers of the Queen Victoria, in order to accommodate their patrons and prevent overcrowding, sent a special car out to Oakville to take passengers from there to Grimsby. Passengers were taken by both boats to the camp-meeting. The Queen Victoria will run to Grimsby on Saturday and Monday.

From the statement of J. E. Vewall in the police court yesterday it appears that it is the universal custom for butchers to do their slaughtering on their premises in the city, in defiance of the by-law. They rely on a decision of Mr. Denison, and on Vewall being fined $1 and costs he intimated that he would appeal the case.

A sculling race will take place on the bay on Saturday afternoon between J. Little and J. Aston, two comps. in the prize establishment of Bengough, Moore & Co. The race will be one mile straight-away, in best-and-best boats. The contestants have been industriously practicing for some time, and both are confident of winning.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

THE CLOSING MATCHES OF THE ONTARIO RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

Some Good Shooting—Miscellaneous Notes of Sports—Baseball, Lacrosse, etc.

The matches of the above association meeting were continued yesterday at the Garrison common. The weather again proved most favorable, a slight breeze from the lake in the evening also interfering with the shooting. From the subject lists it will be seen that some excellent shooting characterized the closing day of the rifle.

In the 1st military district trophy from the 4th district, beating the latter's score of last year by 33 points.

The Queen's Own gained their second victory of the meeting by securing first honors in the skirmishing match, a position they held last year, but being captured last year by twenty-four points, only two of their shots missing the targets. Lieut. Douglas and Worley were the officers in command.

In the evening the markers, register keepers and buglers indulged themselves in a social gathering at the Garrison common. This morning the local bore competition will bring to a close the most successful meeting of the season.

Concurrently with the association have yet had a very successful day. The annual meeting of the Ontario rifle association will be held at the Garrison common on Saturday, August 27th.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

THE CLOSING MATCHES OF THE ONTARIO RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

Some Good Shooting—Miscellaneous Notes of Sports—Baseball, Lacrosse, etc.

The matches of the above association meeting were continued yesterday at the Garrison common. The weather again proved most favorable, a slight breeze from the lake in the evening also interfering with the shooting. From the subject lists it will be seen that some excellent shooting characterized the closing day of the rifle.

In the 1st military district trophy from the 4th district, beating the latter's score of last year by 33 points.

The Queen's Own gained their second victory of the meeting by securing first honors in the skirmishing match, a position they held last year, but being captured last year by twenty-four points, only two of their shots missing the targets. Lieut. Douglas and Worley were the officers in command.

In the evening the markers, register keepers and buglers indulged themselves in a social gathering at the Garrison common. This morning the local bore competition will bring to a close the most successful meeting of the season.
