	WEEKLY ALMANAC.		SAINT ANDREWS
	AUG         i siscs         sets         rises         sets         water $AUG$ $[h m]$ $h m$	S'	TANDA B
·	Bay         14         455         7         6         0         9         7         10           Alos         15         455         7         6         0         9         7         10           Alos         15         456         7         4         0         50         8°         10           Tex         16         457         7         3         1         39         9         10           Wa         17         458         7         2         36         9         50		NEW-BRUNSWICK.
·	Moon s PHASES. Full - Ofth Ob 1 A F I New - 12th-6h 33m A M		and the second

Volume 3.

Last Qr 4th 2h 32 x # FirstQr 19th 5h 36m r Mean Equation-Watch slow - 2 minutes.

Communication.

stituted himself guardian. At all events he a good example. Tokonto, July 15.—The Hon Peter Ro-

and the second and the second second and the second

has for years past been revenging the public neglect, by inflicting upon it the dull pro-ductions of his pen, through the medium of every periodical that would open its columns his duties at the Crown Lands Office, which to his effusions, alike unwarked by wit, or by command of his Excellency devolves on the depth of reasoning

His compositions are indeed "A party coloured dress Of patch'd and pyebald languages, Of English cut on Greek, and Latin. Like fustian heretofore on satin, depth of reasoning.

and vile attempts at jests, of which no moratal can see the point ...

pieces of advice, which a long acquaintance exploring party &c. since school-boy days warrant my offering | him, and abhors a vacuum, it is most true that good sense abhors an empty skull and noisy lips.

2nd. Let him avoid Latin quotations and perpetrating jests. Education never made him a scholar, nor nature a writer.

3rd. Let him cease his incendiary attempts on the peace of society, and not flatter himself, that because he is not every day whip. ped he is therefore approved, or that he will always escape. Let him remember that

Upper Canada. United States. We have received the two first numbers FOR THE STANDARD. FOR THE STANDARD. MR. EDITOR, A communication in the Courier dated Anthony Clodpole, and everyone who happens Anthony Clodpole, and everyone who happens A communication in the courier dated Anthony Clodpole, and everyone who happens A communication in the courier dated Anthony Clodpole, and everyone who happens Anthony Clodpole and everyone who happens Anthony Clodpo of a weekly newspaper entnied " The Con-

Anthony Cloapade, and everyone who happeds in the first sections who have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there. It is a farge shert, well have prevailed there is the far is traveled to shirt frame is traveled to shir

A shepherd on the silent moor

SAINT ANDREWS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1836.

And by him watch'd, at midnight hour, It's lov'd and gentle boy

The Moon and stars were bright ; And well the youngster loved to hear Of those fair orbs of light.

Made stars and planets dim ; In transient splendour through the air

No more could star's or planet's spell The stripling's eye enchant ; He only urged his sire to dell

But, ere the shepherd found a tongue ; The meteor's gleam was gone ; And in their glory o'er them hung

Canst thou the simple lesson read 'My artless muse hath given ? The only lights that safely lead

One far more bright than sun or star Is ht in every soul ; To guide, it nothing earthly mar, reclaiming large portions of moss land, such tection. Her, cap was adorned with blue We have received the first number of the as the bogs of Ireland. Indeed, it is the opi-"New York Express" published on the 14 in atom of Mr. Feathcote himself, that it would Twelve months had rolled away, when on Number 29.

PIGHT BAUTA

Twelve months had rolled away, when on

ROYAL MAIL

ST. STEPHEN, departs -- Tuesd and Thursday

U DTAILS, departs- Monday Wed. Friday

ST. JOUR

duparts- Mon. W d. and Fride

arrives - Tuesda and Saturday 12 A. M.

arrives- Wednesday and Prices

arrives-- Monday Wed. Friday

Post Master.

GEO. FRED. CAMPBELL.

pole: It was not educa-it was not educa-tion, but the erring choice of friends that placed him in a profession to which that mare be conducted in the same spirit as the placed him in a profession to which that mare be conducted in the same spirit as the solution of the spirit place in the same spirit as the comfort of the spirit place in the same spirit as the comfort of the spirit place in the same and muscle issue and muscle will not secure him employment, the has therefore much hile be conducted in the same spirit as the spirit placed. The main has bone and muscle be conducted in the same spirit as the comfort of the spirit place in the same spirit as the comfort of the spirit place in the same spirit as the placed. The main has bone and muscle be conducted in the same spirit as the placed. The main has bone and muscle braised of the life of the spirit place in the spirit of the spirit place in the same spirit as the placed. The main has bone and muscle braised to be application the doel will not secure him employment, the has therefore much hile spirit in the same spirit, and sole of the spirit place in the same spirit as the s of people were seated at different tables some his companious were very desireous to know with their hats on, but all busily eating their who and what he was-for whatever Dr. dinner, and a chair and table were provided Franklin may have said a century ago of the dinker, and a chair and table were provided for myself by a good looking and very smart: guestion asking propensity of his countrymen 1/2 dressed, young woman, who officiated as 1 never noticed so much of that kind of tra-waster. Constant communication was held with the bar at the head of the room, at which tain. On the contrary, I am certain that we three'or tour other females presided. Upon in the United States are remarkably free from inquiring what I could have for dinner, the that sort importunateness. To the round-a-young lady produced the carte, whence it ap-bout question, to find out his calling or pro-peared that there really was everything an tession, Mr. Stuart answered with a grave Englishman could possibly desire, in the mat-ter of roasted and theiled meats, meat pies and serious tone, that he sometimes dres-ter of roasted and theiled meats, meat pies and sed gentlemen's and ladies' hair ; (at that, ter of roasted and soiled meats, meat pies and sed geottenens and indigs hair; (at that, pastry. Neither was the adage " bis dat qui cito dat,"—(He gives doubly who gives quick iy,)—within these walls forgotten, for here achungry tean has no somer made his selice. tion, than in half a minute the smoke of the tion, than in half a minute the smoke of the dish is curling under his nose. I think I I take the liberty to ask what you are, then?" never partook of a more glorious round of "Why I sometimes brush a gentieman's cont beel, than that of which a plateful was place or hat, and comptimes adjust a cravat," "O, beel, than that of which a plateful was plac-ed before me, together with a delicate hiy-white heart of a young cabbage. Next came a delightful apple dumpling well sugared, the fruit transparent, and the crust excellent. The gurnture of the table was honely but clean, the dishes and covers of queen's metal, as highly polished as silver. And after hav-og eaten a sufficient quantity to satisfy any was only one shilling. To conclude—I ask-ed a gutteman sitting at an adjoining table. how much it was customary to give the wait- crevat, and make coats, waistcoats, and breehhow much it was customary to give the wait-er, to which he replied, with a lock of sur-prise-nathing. Had I come to the conclu-sion long before. I certainty should have ar all !" "Guess again; gentlemen; I never rived at it now, namely, that so I ng as an in-handled boot or shoe but for my own feet and dividual can procure so very good a dinner leas; yet all I have told you is true." "We for a shiiling, and be waited upon by a tidy may as well give up guessing." After checkyoung womau into the bargain, England can-not be, in spite of a vast deal of modern phi-of spisits by a large pinch of snuff, he said to

Hon. Robert B. Sullivan till the will of His.

Majesty be known.

From Montreal Morning Courier. We received some time ago the prospectus of the Quebec and St. Andrews' Railroad tembraces a variety of matter, besides a general outline of the plan-namely official notices by the Legislatures of Lower Canada and New Brunswick, and the Committees of Trade at Quebec and Montreal, approving of

I shall quit him at present, with a few the project, together with the report of an Additional spirit has been infused into this vast undertaking by the sanction of the

1st. I would beg him in tuture to read British Government to the appropriation of n uch and write little, for an empty vesse ought to take in, not give out. This applies  $\pounds 10,000$  from the Land Revenue of New Brunswick for the purpose of a thorough exto skulls, no less than other vessels, whether pioration of the route. The length of the the doctrine be true or false that nature road is estimated at 250 miles, and the cost of its construction at  $\pounds 1,000,000$  currency, of  $\pounds 888,889$  sterling; and the probable and nual income at £151,500. The feeling of approbation with which this project has been hailed in. Canada, by indi viduals of the most opposite politics, has not been responded to by the inhabitants of Main it we take for granted that their newspape press in a measure speak their semiment They are evidently jealous of the success of the New Brunswick railway, as it would materially interfere with that from Belfast t though Greece had its Pursued his lone employ.

The night was still, the sky was clear,

When lo ! an earth born meteor's glare

Its glory seem'd to swim.

Oi this new visitant.

The orbs of night alone.

Are those that shine from heaven

To heaven's eternal goal !

If ve would crush the tres before one flower and PROVIION , MD eneral selection of Choice which he will sell at the MEAL &c. &c. Vere Vork per Schomer <sup>4</sup> Com t-the folloneing stitles. lour, Bags Corn Meal, is Tobacco-(16s.) sans and Rice, Race Ginger. . & American Gent. Snuff. rs, half bris, Jamieson's de sold for a very small advance

ICE.

1826

TCE.

ted to Mary Chalmer fied that unless their

n or before the 1st ends leaving the Pio tumn, will be put into tey for collection. ? Y HAL MERS.

(being duly Licenced) first day of May next,

and Commission Room .

own of Saint George, lly receive, and punc-Consignments he may

CIS-M'LORINAN.

ng demands against the am M'Gee late of the, ws deceased will preiber duly attested with d all persons indebted lesired to make immo

Administrator

ng any legal demands he late Samuel Connick ndrews, Farmer, deceas render in the same to justment within twelve ate and all persons in-Istate are requested to ment to. H CONNICK Eres, M KENNY Exctr. 26, 1835.

EW GOODS.

ils at St. John, the Subved on connsignment the

ig articles. and toths, unter Kerseys,

e colours) Antwerp striped ticle ; Eminetts, a large i, Printed Cottons in great unbleached Shirtings and of all des riptions. Jeans, of all descriptions. Jeans, nd Grandrills, Manchester tions. Hats, Boots, Shoes, ng Paper, Quills, Lines, rockery ware, Paints and or Glass, Putty.

ar, Colfse, Starch, Bine

o all Persons indebted to he late Bryce Chalmers counts are paid before the t that time they will be ney for collection without

CHALMERS, Exetrix

S CARTER, Executor

MOWL #S. ns his Frien . and the

that he has opened a

O MAPKET WHARF lately

harles Gilliland, where ha

istantly on hand a com

ass, Crockerv &c. &c. JAMES BOYD

sica Rum, proof 22.

th May 1885.

)TICE

9, 1836.

flavoured Demarára.

LSO.

FICE.

arch 1836 FICE.

JAS W STREET.

THE MAS STANDARD.

D EVERY THURSDAY,

EWS, NEW BRUNSWICE, BY GE N. SMITH.

OF SUBSCRIPTION. telusive of postage, payable ce.)

OF ADVERTISIES. 12 lines and under. 10 20 lover 12 lines 4d per line, r 12 lines 1d per line the year according to special

ent without the number of in cified in writing, will be re-ged until countermanded iscontinuing must be in writing AGENTS

A G E N T S r. S. Connick, Watogg r. R. Purvis, Chamcock. r. W. Camphell, Salt Watsr. M'Allister Esq. M'Allister Esq. Brown Esq. Is. Brown Esq. Is. John Murphy, Lover Falls. Ir. Joseph Pratt, Upper Falls. oshua Knight Esq. Was. Cove. Ir. T. Shannon, Nersk Maad. J. Bayton Feq. Salt March Sciences Market Mill Cover. In John Murphy, Lover Falls. I. John Murphy, Nersk Maad. J. D. Shoriff Esq. V. J. Layton Feq. V. J. Layton Feq. V. J. Layton Feq. V. Shoriff Esq. oseph Reid Esq. Mr. S. Barker, Mr. Wm. Grants

is the product of Théraites who still clameured in the thre Loguacious loud and turbulent of tongue. Aw'd by no shame, by no respect controuled In scandal busy, in reproaches bold, Ulyssis or Achilles still his theme, But roval scandal his delight supreme ! Let him remember that of this wretch it is said "Long had he lived the scorn of every Greek. West when he spoke, the still they heard him . [speak."

4th My advice is, never to call him-self either one of the respectable yeoman-tleman is never bound to nonce sourchous ry of Charlotte or their friend.

most demagagues fail, but assuredly he is too imbecile

"To tide the whirlwind and direct the storm." even could his silly attempts set it in com-

Poor Condition Best copy available

Your Obedient Servant,

Original issues in Quebec. But, however natural and unavoid-able such feelings may be, and however deserving of support and encouragement may be the Pelfast route, both on account of it advantages and as being the one that was posed, it cannot be doubted that there first pr would be far less difficulty from Custom house regulations, &c. experienced in the transport of goods on the St. Andrews' than by the other. Beside the whole bne will lie on British ground despite, the bugbear which the Bangor editor would create about the disputed territory.

A Good loss .- A distinguished writer of abuse of notorious and preverbial blackguards.

A CHARLOTTE FREEROLDER: the Kit Cosey School.

Hath mad eits fragrance or its beauty known -If ye would break the harp before one tone Mas told the sweetness of its hidden power-If ve would ouench the lamp at twilight's hour -Then make the " CORSET-CUESE" your daughters dower ! But oh, if ye revere your God's impression Banish this " sis" of every Christian nation ! And know the murder, in whatever form, Of self, or offspring, is no "elight transgression" Z E. B.

The same idea is expressed in the one of you, he throws the apple of discord into society hoping in the midst of the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can and no other can." It is implied also, in the tollowing passage, which we can an another of a well we do a flying Mercury, exposed precisely with astonishment. Before parting, Stuart is induce the tollowing passage, which we can an another other day, in turning over the across, the other day is output available. The same experiments were tried on another quarter, wrigging aboat in a way of employment is comprised in these same available. If you will call at the same available of the tore would go the same available of the tore would go the same available. The same available of the tore would go the tore of tore of the tore of the tore of the to tinction for which he pants, but is conscious he wants talents and virtues to obtain in a well ordered community. This suggests another advice. 5th. Let him never attempt commotion:

dirty work, because it is his trade."—Char-dirty work, because it is his trade."—Char-leston Free Press. AN INGENIOUS PUFF—" All writers treat. Tivetton. About six acres of raw moss were While taking a parting glass ing. of England," says a French author, turned up in a tew hours, and turned up in man in the room was sure to obtain one, and at the inn, they begged leave to inquire of ren could his silly attempts set it in com-notion. 6th and lastly, (for the present.) I advise it is could not," he could not," he could not," he continues, " be the case, were it not for the almost universal inches in breadth and nine inches in thick-the case, were it not for the almost universal inches in breadth and nine inches in thick-almost extraordmary style, sois eighteen if he happened to be young, certainly two, the inches in breadth and nine inches in thick-almost extraordmary style, sois eighteen if he happened to be young, certainly two, their pleasant companion, in what part of England he was born: he told them he was almost uppermost in her mind; and though not born in England, Wales, Ireland or Scot-him to take this in good part. The case, were it not for the almost universal him to take this in good part. The though the might display his second hand wit, against a propertable family that most materially zon-mercial importance of that place. Whatever may be said of another writer, who had promercial importance of that place. Whatever may be said of another writer, who had pro-vocation, or enter the lists : nothing but un-qualified reprobation has followed his publi-cation, and it is likely the sage order will be reversed ere long * * * * • • 4 and the farce which such would be wit described, be followed with the trage-since; and got rich, as rich as I want to be dy of "knavery unmasked or the Knave suwigged."

 Wow of my children have settled about me, and they all have got good tarms. And my wite an't confortable yet."
 Now har steam is true; to be applied to this department of Agriculture. The plough of the found time for her toilette. Her dress the toil the trage-since; and got rich, as rich as I want to be and they all have got good tarms. And my wite an't confortable yet."
 Now har steam is true; to be applied to this department of Agriculture. The plough of the found time for her toilette. Her dress the to steady a new lesson of the steady and they all have got good tarms. And my wite an't confortable yet." nd they all have got good tarms. And my chine, appears to minon agricultural purposes, gown, with full sleeves, and a small black whose vera cular tongue is the sine with tough we have little doubt that it might be silk apron. Her stays were tightly laced, her that of Newton, Bacon and Locke, Shek, used not only with effect but advantage, in clothes well put on, and her feet uset to per spare, Milton, and Pope, sophy, so very bad a country to live in. The young person referred to was really will not play the fool with you any longer, but "Now, gentlemen, I the pink of her protession, her movements be-ing quiet, quick, dexterous, and I may add, my bona fide profession. I get my bread by Or rise the status in th' encasing stonewho were no sooner satisfied than they went sage, in a manner such as Samuel Foote or away, and were replaced by others; so that Charles Matthews might have envised. When the whole set were nearly changed twice over his companione, after loud peals of langhter, during the halt hour that I remained in the had composed themselves, each took credit Stamp d on the huan frame-if ye would arm room. Her eyes were speyery corner at the to himself for having " all the while suspect-Your sons against Consumption's gastly charm- same mement ; every guest found his wants ted that the gentleman belonged to the theaattended to, as soon almost as he was aware tre, and they all knew that he must be a of them himself. At all events she was ne. comedian by profession ; when to their surver for a moment still, dropping a fork to one prise, he assured them that he never was on of soft, or offspring, is no "elight transgression" ter for a monterie and the another, craving pardon Z E.B. of a third, as ske reached across the table scientifie. STEAM Ploton, Late English papers tude of a flying Mercury, exposed precisely with astonishment. Before parting, Stuart