

"I SAY UNTO THEE, ARISE."

your comforter when you are in sorrow, your Saviour from sin, and your companion by-and-by in heaven. In the last day He will raise your body from the grave, clothe you in a white robe, and give you a happy home in the glorious land. Won't you love, praise, and serve this Jesus? Surely you will be His disciple now and forever.
