DIED.
At her residence, 32 Carlton street, on Friday 1st July, 1881, Catherine, widow of the late John McArthur, in the 75th year of her age - mother of A. McGregor, ex-alderman. A resident of Toronto for fifty-four years.
On Sabbath evening, July 3rd, at his residence, 17 Denison Avenue, Toronto, Mr. William Heaton.
The deceased was a native of the County Down, north of Ireland. He was a Presbyterian, descended from the good old stock of the Covenanters. He was "mighty in the Scriptures," and a resolute upholder of the standards of the Church. He bore, with the hope of a Christian, and the fortitude of a man, a protracted and painful illness. He was comforted in his sufferings by the faithful ministrations of the Rev Robert Wallace, under whom he worshipped. He leaves a widow to mourn his irreparable loss. He leaves, also, a circle of devoted friends, to whom his simple, pious, and affectionate nature endeared him. "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain." - Rev xxx 4.
