THE PASTOR'S DIARY, and Clerical Record for 1885, by Rev. R. Laing, M. A., of St. Matthew's Church, Halifax, and Rev. L. B. Jordan, B. D., of St. Andrew's Church, Halifax; published by James Gemmell, Edinburgh, is a neat pocket volume which supplies a long felt want and supplies it well. Hitherto almost the only book that could be obtained for the purpose was denominational, prepared for the Episcopal Church, and specially arranged for use in that church. This book is not denominational, and is suited to all. Its contents are, a calendar for 1885, S. S. Lessons for the year, fifty-seven pages for diary for 1885, seventy pages suitably arranged for a record of Pastoral visitation for names of the congregation, the sick, inquirers, &c. Then follow record of administration by Baptism, by Communion, Marriage and Burial, of Bible Class Roll, general statistics; and various other details which one might wish to record. In plan, arrangement, and execution, it is well done. It may be obtained from the Book and Tract Society, or from McGregor & Knight, Halifax.

THE DANCE OF MODERN SOCIETY, by Professor W. Cleaver Wilkinson, is published by Funk and Wagnalls, New York, and may be obtained through McGregor & Knight, Halifax, price 65 cts. The writer does not treat of "dancing," But the "dance of Modern Society." Just as in discussing the theatre, we have not to deal with dramatic representation, but with the theatre as it is, so this writer does not discuss "dancing," in the abstract but "the dance" as it is practiced in modern society. He treats it under the following topics:

1. The bearing of the dance upon health.
2. Its relation to economy.
3. Its social tendency.
4. Its influence upon intellectual improvement.

5. Its moral or religious aspects.
His discussion of the whole subject is terse, pointed, and conclusive. Dr. Cuyler says of it, "It is the most pungent criticism of 'the dance of modern society' that I have seen" and the most of those who read it without prejudice will well endorse his opinion.
