

GRAND MARSH Who's for it? News

Vol. XIV.—No. 5.

MONTREAL, SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1876.

{ SINGLE COPIES, TEN CENTS.
$4 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

RETALIATION.

SCENE:—The Chambly Canal locks; an American barge on her way to Lake Champlain.
 GATE-KEEPER MACKENZIE:—Can't pass this way, UNCLE SAM; better go round by Halifax. The St. Lawrence is free. But since you are so particular about your Canals, we'll read our treaties more closely and stand by them—to the letter. You can't pass, UNCLE SAM!
