

GRIP

VOL. XXXIX.

TORONTO, OCTOBER 22, 1902.

No. 17.
Whole No. 1010.

THE ROYAL WATCH.

DOGBERRY—"This is your charge. You shall comprehend all vagrant men, annexationists, etc. You are to bid any man stand in the Queen's name."

2ND WATCHMAN—"How if he will not stand?"

DOGBERRY—"Why, then, take no note of him, but let him go and presently call the watch together and thank God you are rid of the knave."—Shakespeare up-to-date.