

THE SUIT.

When the rays of the sunset's vista o'er- shadows, And heralds are rift in the halls of the west, Ousted in their mantles of dazzling gold, They sink 'neath a golden river of glory, I would I could sink like the rays, by a river of splendour, by whose banks I once played young and pure, where life and its aims is a wearisome game, then, leave me to rest by the banks of the Suir.

The bells of old Carrick will send their soft music Over the breast of the river; the waves will keep time, And the rush of their melody only can soothe me. My dead heart would throbb to their answering chime. The grass round its banks to me is the greenest, Each pebble a record would be to me still, They could tell of the many bright moments there squandered, On my way to the school at the foot of the hill.

Then lay me to rest, away in old Ireland, That island of fame, misfortune and pain, And, perhaps, when the chains of her tyrannical empire are broken, I'll wear in my slumbers her war-cry again, I will be borne on the river, caught up by each ripple, Till the harmony swells melodious and pure, And I'll be the sound in my bed by the streamlet. In Carrick in far, on the banks of the Suir.

EXECUTION SALES FOR RENT.

HOW THE LAND LEAGUERS GO TO WORK.

The following interesting report is taken from the Freeman's Journal of April 28th. It is only one of hundreds which are reported, and will give an idea of the general policy both of the League and the Emergency Committee, a body of men acting for the landlords :-

No more stirring spectacle has been witnessed in this portion of Meath for a very long time than was presented here to-day at the sale of three lots of cattle seized on executions for rent. The cattle were seized at the suit of Mr. James Thomas Barlow, of Blackrock, Dublin, who owns a large tract of land in the district lying between here and Nobber. The tenant offered the Government valuation as a rent. The landlord refused to accept it, and several of the tenants have been served with writs. The three tenants against whom judgment has been marked, and whose cattle were this day put up for sale, are Mrs. Bashford, yearly rent, £89; valuation, £66; Mr. J. Phillips, yearly rent, £166; valuation, £102; and Mr. T. McCann, yearly rent, £153; valuation, £114. Each tenant was sued for a half-year's rent, with costs. The cattle were seized and lodged in pound four or five days ago, and though some friends of the tenants offered solvent security that the cattle would be forthcoming on the day of the sale, the sheriff refused to allow them to be taken out of the pound. Early this morning a large body of police were drafted into the town from different districts of Meath and the surrounding counties. The entire body of police, who were under the command of Mr. Coogan, numbered over 200. The Ardree Rifle and Drum Band and the Carrackmacross brass band, arrived in the village with large contingents. No less than 4,000 persons were assembled at the sale, including the officers of various branches of the Land League, Mr. Harrington, of the Land League, arrived in town about half-past twelve, and met with a hearty ovation. He was received by Rev. Father Monahan, P. P.; Very Rev. Canon Hoey, P. P.; Rev. T. Gilheaney, C. C.; Rev. J. Ward, C. C.; and other clergymen, with Messrs J. McCarthy, Drogheda League; Mr. P. Lynch, Nobber branch; J. Tevlin, Kells branch; M. F. Flood, Drumconrath League; J. Dogherthy, do; J. Stein, M. Sullivan, &c.

The two bands paraded the village for about an hour waiting the arrival of the sheriff and the emergency men. Shortly after two o'clock two side-cars drove up bearing Mr. J. Lowry, Sub-Sheriff, Mr. McEnroe, auctioneer; Mr. Goddard of the Property Defence Association, accompanied by another member of the Society, whose name I failed to ascertain, and a third, who appeared to be a servant. The form of yelling and hooting which greeted them on their arrival gave them fair promise of a by no means agreeable day's work. The party proceeded immediately to the pound, surrounded by a whole force of police. Only a small portion of the assemblage were admitted to the pound, but the bulk of the people surrounded it on all sides. The auctioneer said he would first put up 16 bullocks, the property of Dr. Phillips, and he would take a bid for them in one lot. Mr. Harrington said he was instructed by the tenant to object first to the cattle being sold in the pound, to which the public had not access; and secondly, to their being put up in one lot. The Sheriff and auctioneer stated that they would put up the cattle in one lot in each case, whereupon Mr. Goddard bid £30 for the first lot, consisting of 15. Mr. Harrington increased the bid by 1s. Mr. Goddard then advanced by £10, and Mr. Harrington by 1s until the lot was struck down for him amid cheers at £90, which was less than the amount of execution by £3. Mr. Harrington, to the utter confusion of the Sheriff and auctioneer, demanded the immediate delivery of the cattle. A hot scene ensued between him and the sheriff and auctioneer, which lasted for about a quarter of an hour, a time which the crowd appeared to have enjoyed immensely. The confusion was increased upon Mr. Harrington's refusal to pay auctioneer's fees. Mr. McEnroe insisted upon getting his fees.

Mr. Harrington—Get them from the landlord. I'll give you none. You are not legally entitled to them.

Mr. Lowry, sub-sheriff—I beg your pardon, he is.

Mr. Harrington—I beg yours Mr. Sheriff, he is not.

Mr. McEnroe—I'll put up the cattle again.

Mr. Harrington—I have no objection whatsoever that you should give yourself the trouble.

Mr. McEnroe—I'll keep the £90 you gave me.

Mr. Harrington indeed you will not, and the sooner you hand it out the better.

Mr. McEnroe—I'll give you a receipt for the payment.

Mr. Harrington—You'll give me the cattle with the receipt (cheers).

After some further consultation the Sheriff said he would give the cattle, an announcement which the crowd received with vociferous cheering.

Mr. Harrington (to the tenant)—I shall take these fifteen cattle with me, and as the Sheriff has put them up in one lot and sold them under the value you can sue him for the balance.

The next lot put up was that of Mrs. Bashford. There were 16 head of cattle, but the auctioneer, as if taking advantage of the warning just mentioned, only put up eight. They were bought in by Mr. Harrington for £2 less than the amount of execution, the bidding being similar to the first case.

The third lot put up was seven head of cattle belonging to Mr. McCann, to satisfy an execution for £86. Mr. Goddard bid £30. Mr. Harrington advanced by his favorite bid of 1s, and the emergency man having declined to go farther, the lot was struck down to Mr. Harrington at £30 1s, which fell short of the amount of the execution by £55.

Mr. Harrington declined to pay auctioneer's fees in either case, and the sheriff having consented to give up the cattle without requiring fees, a time was mutually arranged to settle accounts. The band, followed by the Land League men, then proceeded towards the Land League rooms. Rev. Father Gilheaney, President of the League, addressed the people. He was followed by Mr. Harrington, who spoke at considerable length, and dwelt strongly upon the condition of the County Meath. Father Ward also addressed the people.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Harrington having received a message from the Sheriff, proceeded to the police barracks to settle accounts with the Sheriff and auctioneer. On his arrival the following animated dialogue occurred in front of the barracks :-

Sheriff—I will have to get auctioneer's fees from you, Mr. Harrington. Mr. Goddard will take the cattle at the price and pay the fees.

Mr. Harrington—He will not get the cattle.

Sheriff—I'll give him the cattle if you don't pay the fees.

Mr. Harrington—Then I charge you with deliberately breaking my word you will deliberately breaking my word.

Mr. Goddard—I'll give the fees.

Mr. Lowry—Mr. Goddard objects on behalf of the landlord.

Mr. Harrington—Who is he, and what right has he to object? Is not a landlord—he is not even a landlord's relative (cheers and laughter).

Mr. McEnroe here put up the cattle again. Mr. Goddard commenced bidding at £90. Mr. Harrington refused to bid, and commenced writing out a notice to the sheriff. The sheriff said he would give over the cattle to Mr. Harrington. The crowd cheered again and again at this victory, and the cattle were immediately taken out and paraded through the village with "rack-rent" marked on their foreheads. Mr. Harrington received a warm ovation at the hands of the people, and he and several of the gentlemen at the sale were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Devin, of Millpark.

In conclusion, we thank those of our friends who have responded so promptly and so cheerfully to our call for amounts due, and request those of them who have not, to follow their example at once.

INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAWS.

MADRID, May 15.—The Government at the request of foreign representatives will limit the power inflicting fines on foreign vessels entering Spanish ports with errors in papers, bills of lading or certificates. The fine will be smaller, but will still be inflicted if vessels arrive without Consular advice, and they do not comply with the rules of the Board of Health in ports. Vessels forced by distress to enter the Spanish Dominion will be excepted from the severities of the new regulations reform, and at the request of the American Government be extended to the Colonies, as American vessels have been fined and sequestered in Cuba and Manila.

Mrs. W. F. Long, Bethany, Ont., writes:—"I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. As a last resort, I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, in fact it is our family medicine."

The Board of Directors of the Eastern Dairyman's Association met at Belleville on Saturday, and after a long discussion it was resolved to hold the next Butter and Cheese Exhibition in connection with the exhibition of the Toronto Industrial Association in September next.

UNSPEAKABLE TORTURES are experienced by the neuralgic, and these beset them upon the slightest occasion, particularly when they catch a trifling cold. Until the attack passes off they are racked with pain and rendered sleepless and miserable. Their sufferings are, however, altogether unnecessary, for that pain-soothing specific, Thomas' Electric Oil, subdues the inflammation and tranquilizes the tortured nerves in an inconceivably short space of time. This inexpensive, economic and effective preparation, which, unlike other oils, loses nothing by evaporation when applied outwardly, is also taken inwardly as a medicine. Used in both ways, it is a superlatively fine remedy for rheumatism, lameness, kidney troubles, piles, coughs, colds, bruises, burns, scalds, corns and other physical ailments. Elderly people who suffer from sore or weak backs, should by all means use it. Sold by all medicine dealers. Prepared only by NORTON & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont.

COMMERCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW—WHOLESALE MARKETS.

The city wholesale trade continues seasonably active, and the only complaints come from the owners and agents of vessels, who are anything but cheerful at the demoralized state of the freight market. Several cargoes of grain have been engaged for Liverpool as low as 1s 6d and 1s 3d, but these rates cannot last much longer, as the market is tending upwards in New York in consequence of the arrival of grain barges through the Erie Canal. Receipts of grain at Montreal, though still light in comparison with the ocean tonnage in port seeking freight, are increasing, and on Saturday last about 100,000 bushels changed hands on this market. As the spring fleet at this port and Quebec increases in size rumors of impending ship laborers' strikes are again heard, but it is to be hoped that shipping agents, recognizing the improved state of trade, will avert trouble by acceding to all just demands, so that the trade naturally to the St. Lawrence shall not be attracted to other ports on the Atlantic sea-board. The constant heavy rains in this vicinity while extremely favorable to hay fields and pasture lands have delayed field operations, but farmers state they will have little cause for complaint if the weather soon clears up. Stocks of dairy produce are accumulating, and with the advent of slightly lower prices a large business will be done. In the wholesale department hardware and groceries are fairly active, but leather, wool, dry goods, &c., are only meeting with a light irregular demand. DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.—Optum and Epsom salts are easier. Heavy chemicals remain dull, but light lines and sundries of all kinds are in improved demand. Ex-ship large sales are reported in salt soda, alum and soda-ash. Borax, 15c to 17c; sugar, lead, 15c to 14c; bichromate of potash, 15c to 16c; soda ash, $1.50 to $1.90; cream tartar, ground, 32c to 34c; do, crystal, 29c to 31c; bleaching powder, $2.75 to $2.87; toll do, $2.25 to $2.45; epsom salts, $1.25 to 1.50; sal soda, $1.15; saltpetre, $3.50 to $10.00 per 100 lb; whitening, 55c to 70c; quinine, $3.90 to $4; castor oil, 10c to 11c; opium, $8.00 to 8.50; bl-carb soda, $3.30 to 3.50.

Boots and Shoes.—Prices are firm owing to advance in wages, &c., but as long as leather continues cheap there is not much chance of higher prices. A few scattered orders are dropping in from travellers who report country people busy and stocks not much broken. Men's split boots, $1.75 to 2.25; do split brogans, 90c to $1.10; do buff congress, $2 to 2.25; do split, $2.50 to 3.25; do cowhide boots, 2.50 to $3; women's split bala, 90c and $1; do pebble and buff balmorals, $1.15 to $1.50; do prunella, 60c to $1.60; Misses' buff and pebble bala, $1.00 to 1.20.

IRON AND HARDWARE.—New consignments of hardware are being received, and they are wanted, as the market has been well cleared of most descriptions. Remittances are satisfactory, and prices nominally unchanged. The pig-iron market is weak and sales have taken place in European and American markets at lower rates. The prospects of a strike in Scotland does not appear to help the market. Coltness, $19.50 to 20.50; Langloan, $19.50 to $20; Gartsherrie, $19 to 19.50; Summerlee, $19.10 to $19.50; Eglington, $18.50 to 19; Hematite, $25 to 27; bars per 100 lbs. Scotland and Staffordshire, $1.80 to 1.90; ditto best $2.10 to 2.25; Sweden & Norway, $4.50 to 4.75; Lowmoor and Bowling, $6 to 6.50; Canada, plates, Swansea and Penn., $3.25 to 3.50; Hatton, $3.15 to 3.20; Arrow, $3.60 to 3.60; Coke, IC, $4.75. GRAIN.—The late auction sale was well attended, and 1,000 pkgs. sold at fair prices, better probably than recently at private sale. Nagasaki Japan may be quoted at 25c to 35c; common Japan, 20c to 25c; good common to medium, 27c to 30c; fair to good, 34c to 40c; new to choice, 41 to 52c. Tarragons, 13c; Walnuts, Bordeaux, 6 1/2c to 7c; Filberts, 8 1/2c.

LEATHER.—In consequence of a firm market for hides in New York holders of sole leather have been less anxious to sell, but the market is still over-stocked and there is no real strength in it. Sales are few and far between. Hemlock Spanish sole, No. 1 B A, 2c to 25c. Ordinary 24c to 25c; No. 2 do 22c to 23c; buffalo sole, No. 1, 21c to 23c; do No. 2, 19 to 21c; hemlock slat No. 1, 26c to 28c; waxed upper, light and medium, 36c to 42c; splits, large, 22c to 30; do small, 23c to 28c; calskins, (27 to 35 lbs) 60c to 80c; do, (18 to 26 lbs) 60c to 70c.

Sales of about 700 bbls. of flour, and 800 to 900 bags were reported to-day. The leading demand was for Ontario bags, which changed hands at $2.50 and $2.60, and medium bakers, which realized $5.35, $5.40 and $5.45. Still a fair enquiry for grain is reported. THE CITY RETAIL MARKETS—MAY 17. The city markets were not very well attended to day owing to the inclement weather. Farmers now have little to sell beyond root crops and have moreover lots of field work on hand. Grain was firm and dairy produce easier.

MONTREAL HAY MARKET. The demand for hay has been fairly active, and sales have occurred at $12 to $13 per 100 bundles of 15 lbs each. Best quality is scarce, large shipments to the States having reduced stocks very considerably. Prescott hay of good quality is readily taken at $13 to $14 per ton, a large quantity being required for the exportation of live stock. In Boston good to choice Eastern and Canada hay commands $21 to $23 per ton.

MONTREAL HORSE MARKET.—MAY 16. This market has been only moderately active the past week, and next week there will probably be still fewer sales to report, as scarcely any buyers are in town from the United States. On the Corporation market several lots of fine serviceable horses have been sold to the local trade at satisfactory prices. The following dealers were in town since our last report:—D. M. Farley, Nashua, N. H.; A. F. Andrews; South Paris, Me.; D. L. Sanderson, Worcester; C. H.enson, Lowell, Mass.; A. E. Austin; Meriden, Conn.; J. Conns, Springfield, Mass.; H. W. Adams, Hartford, Conn.; Gregory Lynder, Silvery Plains, N. Y.; S. Parsons; Shannon Springs, N. Y.; M. Hicks, Worcester, Mass.; Z. R. Folson, Biddeford, Me.; D. P. Beattie, St. Paul, Minn.; W. ST. GABRIEL CATTLE MARKET.—MAY 16. As the season advances the cattle export trade is assuming large proportions. Since Monday last fully 3,800 head have arrived at Montreal for export to Europe, and there has also arrived, partly for export and partly for the local markets, 670 hogs, 500 sheep, 240 calves, and 70 horses. It is unfortunate that dealers have some cause for complaint of the transport facilities. Messrs Stone & Walters, of Whitby, report the loss of some $500 on eleven cattle, part of a consignment of eight car loads, as six cattle, worth $80 each, died on the cars and had to be sold at $10 each, and 5 cattle were so badly crippled that they had to be sold to butchers at $20 to 40 each. Dealers having cattle to-day were:—M. Elliot, Kingston, 1 load; W. Ginkins, St. Mary's, do; M. Bolton, Perth, do; N. Galbraith, Sarnia, do; S. Burnet, Toronto, do; W. Hearn, Guelph, do; Burrows & Hopper, Toronto, do; W. T. Whitton, Belleville, do; Jas. Eakins, Port Hope, do; O'Leary & Cameron, Toronto, do; M. Laporte, Midway, do. Alderman McShane purchased cattle from M. Laporte, Mr. Whitton and several other dealers at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2c per lb. S. Price as agent of a shipper made several large purchases at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2c. Kennedy & Craig ship 250 cattle this week on one steamer and exports will be large as 120 cars of cattle arrived here since the 14th inst.

The principal shippers here are:—Crawford & Co., Toronto; C. Johnson, do; R. Craig, do; A. J. Thompson, Guelph; W. J. McLean, of Seaford; J. J. McClelland, Paris; George Brown, Toronto and Galt; S. Price, Montreal; N. Kennedy, Montreal; and James McShane, Jr.,
