

FOURTH PARTICULARS OF THE LOSS OF THE SS. STEINMANN.

THE SURVIVORS.—The surviving passengers and crew of the ill-fated steamer are as follows:—Henri Schönböhm, Antwerp; Captain; Eugene Nikola Mikulic, Luxembourg; Jacob Nicola Vinograd, Salono, Italy; John Nelderman, Eindhoven, Ober Bayen; Otto Kraus, Wiltshofendorf, near Schwarsburg; Frank Florentine Dissert, Antwerp; Charles Van Louis, Antwerp; Petro Pingas, Antwerp; Fritz Vioh, Stralsund, Prussia.

Up to this evening the wreck remains in the same position. The water was comparatively smooth to-day and a large number of boats were about grappling. They only secured three bodies, making eleven altogether so far recovered from the water.

THE REMAINS RECOVERED.—The first body recovered this morning was that of a little girl five or six years old. She was comfortably dressed and evidently a child of respectable parents.

Another girl, apparently a few years older, makes the only female recovered, none of the women having yet been brought to the surface. This is the body of a boy about sixteen, supposed by the people of the island to be a brother.

A man picked up had the letter 'M' in India ink on his left wrist, with two crosses on each side of it, and on the right wrist the letters 'A V.' and below them immediately over the thumb an anchor and heart and two crosses. The body was that of a man about 25 years old, of medium size and build.

On him were found the only valuables on any of the bodies. In his pocket was found a silver watch, twenty-seven francs in gold and a package of papers, among the latter a ticket for passage by the steamer for New York, bearing the name August Bitcher, of Düsseldorf. The body of a man, about fifty years, is laid out next.

The Panama Star and Herald publishes the following, which it credits to the Monitor Republicano, of Mexico:—"A wild boy was recently caught in the Santa Rosa Mountains, in the vicinity of Tancambitzin. He was carried to that town and put in a well fenced garden, where he greedily consumed fruit, lettuce, roses and the roots of several plants.

HE IS CAPTURED IN MEXICO.—ATTEMPTS TO DEVOUR A CHILD AND MURDER IT. The Panama Star and Herald publishes the following, which it credits to the Monitor Republicano, of Mexico:—"A wild boy was recently caught in the Santa Rosa Mountains, in the vicinity of Tancambitzin. He was carried to that town and put in a well fenced garden, where he greedily consumed fruit, lettuce, roses and the roots of several plants.

THE PASSENGER LIST. ANTWERP, April 5.—The steamer Daniel Steinmann left Antwerp with 80 passengers and a crew of 36, all told. The names of the passengers were as follows:—Buchardt, of Ascher; Bichter, of Düsseldorf; Roos, of Nuremberg; Floeckenstein, of Heirichshalt; Faeth, of Weiberbrunn; Maller, of Darmstadt; Hebel, of Darmstadt; a family of eight persons named Heckenhausen, coming from Stolte; Focks, of Koenigsbach; Matthias and Nicholas Majers, of Hoesingen; Emil, of Dresden; Clark, of New York; Markham, of Hull; Potter, of Niederhochstede; Lorenz, of Munster; Vanhamme, of Basselet; DiDoreno, of Italy; Gambardella, of Italy; Bacco, of Italy; Osterreicher, of Waschenfeld; Lorenz, of Gallen; Both, of Stetshelm; Frick, of Kengnen; Horn, of Roeh; Ganker, of Esob; Eisler, of Guttorf; Thell, of Hattorf; Semmer, of Koenigs; Spring, of Berlin; Stoesel, of Woessen; Hoff, of Dambach; a family of eleven persons named Bengert, from Aranzheim, Switzerland; Semaldt, of Heffingen; two families named Kluchen, comprising seven persons; three persons named Knut, of Heffingen; Krenn, of Erensen; Wm Franz, of Miesee; alden, of Marg Franx, of Maderland; Jaeger, of Uolman; Binnsfeld, of Heffingen; Sothe, of Gildorf; Nelderman, Nelderbuere; Fischer, of Nenhofen; Gots, of Blankenborn; Joseph, Erhardt, of Blankenborn; George Elshardt, of Blankenborn; Buppelicht, of Holstenfeld; Kraser, of Strasbourg; a family named Kranercock, comprising six persons, of Bldderkerk, and a family of seven persons named Stravembol, from Bldderkerk; Stikel, of Guntershof; Bleder, of Wolkshof, and Alf, of Bluskaatie; Spies, of Stolte.

THE OFFICERS.—The officers were Schoonhoven, the captain, and Lamp, Esmer, Gernard and Vioh, subordinate officers. The names of the sailors are Brunnlich, Hicketen, Kooivangraet, Aikhelner, Krasne, Neuman, Jacobben, Fokhman, Shtans, Beckmann, Decker, Poper, Beas, Deboen, Van Meyneken, Vandy, Pijnsen, Deymeulen, Gallivert, Ueno, Uerback, Devosse, Hack, Plijant, Bourmerville, Dand, Armer, Blanck, Brenker, Vanestien, Faren, Ohears and Geertz. The complete list shows 5 officers, 23 sailors and 91 passengers.

THE CUBAN FILIBUSTERS. HAVANA, April 5.—General Aguera and followers landed on the 1st instant at Ciscos, rear jurisdiction of Cardenas. Troops were immediately sent in pursuit of them.

WARSWICK, April 5.—Secretary Ohandler has received information that twenty-five men landed from a schooner on the coast of Cuba on the night of the 2nd.

KEY WEST, Fla., April 5.—The schooner Shavers arrived last night and was seized by Collector Wicker, who placed inspectors on board. There were two colored men and one Cuban on board. The negro in charge said he was engaged to pilot the Shavers to Cape Florida. On rounding Fort Taylor Aguers told him, with a drawn pistol, he must take the party to the Cuban coast. On approaching near Cardenas he directed the pilot to land abreast of the plantation in sight where horses would be obtained. This was done and the party reached the beach. The pilot put to sea and saw an extensive fire before getting clear of land. He thinks the plantation buildings were burned. Reports vary regarding the number of filibusters from twelve to twenty.

THE EGYPTIAN MINISTRY.

LONDON, April 7.—Nubar Pasha has consented to suspend his resignation until the English Government gives a decision in regard to the relative powers of the Egyptian ministers and the English officials. The Khedive is supporting Nubar Pasha's right to supreme control of the administration, and urged the dismissal of O'Hara Lloyd. Several other Pashas declined to join the new ministry unless the English element were excluded.

PRINCE LEOPOLD'S FUNERAL. LONDON, April 5.—The funeral services over the remains of Prince Leopold were held this morning in St. George's chapel. The Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Princess Christian, Princess Louise and Beatrice, the Crown Prince Frederick William, and other royal personages were present. The Prince of Wales followed the coffin as the chief mourner. The remains were deposited in the vault.

MARY ANDERSON. LONDON, April 7.—Mary Anderson has been interviewed in regard to the recent reports concerning her. She says she cannot guess who has inspired the recent slandering paragraphs. She is indignant and angry, and says: "They are all fiction, but they are none the less painful to me and equally painful to the men whose names have been coupled with mine." She pronounces them cruel practical jokes, and scornfully repudiates the ideas that they were circulated as an advertising dodge.

A WILD BOY. HE IS CAPTURED IN MEXICO.—ATTEMPTS TO DEVOUR A CHILD AND MURDER IT. The Panama Star and Herald publishes the following, which it credits to the Monitor Republicano, of Mexico:—"A wild boy was recently caught in the Santa Rosa Mountains, in the vicinity of Tancambitzin. He was carried to that town and put in a well fenced garden, where he greedily consumed fruit, lettuce, roses and the roots of several plants.

ANOTHER MARINE DISASTER. HALIFAX, N.S., April 5.—The steamer "Newcastle City," Captain Garver, sailed from this port for Boston at six o'clock yesterday morning. About two o'clock in the afternoon, during a thick fog, she struck on Little Hope shoal, off Liverpool, Queen's Co., and dragging over, knocked several holes in her bottom. Water began to pour into the fore and main compartments in great quantity, and Captain Garver determined to return to Halifax. About four o'clock this morning, after the steamer had just passed Meagher's light, the water was found to be gaining so fast that to save the lives of those on board it was decided to beach the steamer. Pilot Richard O'Neill, who had the ship in charge, successfully ran her aground in Beech Cove, Nichol's Island, close by Finlay's wharf, where she now lies in an upright and steady position, with her head to the northward.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA. HAVANA, April 7.—The general feeling of distrust is assuming gigantic proportions. Chief Durand is reorganizing a band of so-called bandits; other chiefs are recruiting actively all over the country. The election of members to the Cortes will be another element of moral disturbance. The Conservative party is split because the majority of the Spaniards begin to see that if the present mismanagement continues the island will be speedily ruined. The commercial situation is daily becoming more desperate. Stocks and shares of all kinds have fallen to an alarming degree.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT. LONDON, April 7.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Under Foreign Secretary said the Government had no precise information regarding the American schools in Armenia, but it was aware that the American missionaries had been attacked near Bitlis and prevented from opening a school at Insh Soo. The schools at Van had been closed. The British Ambassador had been impressed upon the Porte the necessity of ameliorating the condition of affairs in Kurdistan and East Anatolia. This evening Mr. Gladstone made a powerful speech in support of the franchise bill. He said it was a good thing for the State that the largest number of capable citizens should possess the franchise, and defended the extension of the franchise to Ireland as an act of right and justice. The franchise bill passed its second reading by 390 to 210.
