FORT FRASER

THE HUB OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

A Townsite Investment Proposal Appealing to the Common Sense, Business Foresight and Sound Reasoning of the People

FORT FRASER IS SITUATED at the confluence of the Upper and Lower Nechaco Rivers, in the interior of British Columbia, Canada's richest province. It is a superb city location, is being improved with streets, buildings, etc.; lies adjacent Fraser Lake—a beauty spot and water-power source,—and in the very heart of the Bulkley and Nechaco Valleys, rich agricultural and stock-raising areas. Government reports highly recommend this section of British Columbia to settlers, and as a result it is being quickly taken up. Fort Fraser is to be accessible within a year by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway; has water communication with neighboring towns. In a word, it is a most promising prospect for the investor, and strong men of clean reputation are behind it. The British Columbia Government has made numerous reservations in Fort Fraser. No flare of trumpets or elaborate argument is required to impress the possibilities of this new town upon the mind of the intelligent observer. Many precedents have been established in the Canadian West to strengthen its claims.

Printed data, maps and plans furnished promptly on request, all duly registered and protected. Government reservations marked in red.
