

Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
CANADA—A LAND OF FORESTS	1
THE VALUE OF FORESTS	2
FOREST MANAGEMENT—WIDER VALUES, WIDER PARTICIPATION	2
The National Forest Strategy	3
Initiatives in Government, Industry, and Other Sectors ...	4
BUILDING A STRONGER KNOWLEDGE BASE FOR THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT OF FORESTS	6
Domestic Criteria and Indicators	6
The Domestic Model Forest Program	7
The National Forestry Database Program	7
Certification	8
INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL COOPERATION	8
International Model Forests	9
Montreal Process Criteria and Indicators	9
Intergovernmental Panel on Forests	9
NEXT STEPS—A LEGALLY BINDING INSTRUMENT FOR FORESTS	10
Benefits	10
An Integrated and Comprehensive Forest Agenda ...	10
Effective Governance	11
Open, Inclusive, and Transparent Decision Making ...	11
Cooperation and Coordination in Financial Assistance and Technology Transfer	11
Facilitation of Trade in Forest Products	12
Action-Oriented Results	12
Elements	12
CONCLUSION—1997 IS A YEAR OF OPPORTUNITY	14