

- (b) carrying traffic under the code of any other airline(s) where such other airline(s) has been authorized by the Aeronautical Authorities of Vietnam to sell transportation under its own code on flights operated by the designated airline(s) of Canada.
- (2) All airlines involved in code sharing arrangements shall hold the appropriate underlying route authority.
- (3) Code sharing services involving transportation between the Points in Vietnam shall be restricted to flights operated by an airline(s) authorised by the Aeronautical Authorities of Vietnam to provide services between the Points in Vietnam and all transportation between the Points in Vietnam under the code of the designated airline(s) of Canada shall only be available as part of an international journey.
- (4) The Aeronautical Authorities of Vietnam shall not withhold permission for code sharing services identified in Note 4 (1) (a) by the designated airline(s) of Canada on the basis that the airline(s) operating the aircraft does not have the right from Vietnam to carry traffic under the code of the airline(s) designated by Canada.
- (5) For the purpose of code-sharing services, airlines shall be permitted to transfer traffic between aircraft without limitation.

5. For the purposes of Article X (Capacity), neither the Socialist Republic of Vietnam nor its Aeronautical Authorities shall unilaterally impose any restrictions with respect to capacity, frequency, or type of aircraft offered by the designated airline(s) of Canada, for code sharing services on the flights of other airlines.
