Mr. Speaker: I declare the motion carried.

[Translation]

Mr. Prud'homme: Mr. Speaker, I did not vote because I had agreed last week to be paired with the Minister of National Defence (Mr. McKinnon).

[English]

Mr. Speaker: The hon. member for Pontiac-Gatineau-Labelle (Mr. Lefebvre).

Mr. Lefebvre: Mr. Speaker, I have a point of order. I understand that, under the rule, the House order would now mean one full day's debate. As the budget will begin at eight o'clock tomorrow night, should there not now be some arrangement about what exactly comprises a full day's debate? Will it be part of tonight, part of tomorrow, and part of Wednesday? That does not seem to be very clear at the moment. Perhaps the government House leader, with the leaders of the other parties—

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Lefebvre: Would you mind if I have a couple of minutes? I speak to these experts on the back benches opposite
