

The year is now declining; and the air—
 — When morning blushes on the orient hills—
 Embued with icy chillness. Ocean's wave
 Has lost the tepid glow, and slumbering fogs
 On clouded days brood o'er its level plain;
 Yet, when the day is at meridian height,
 The sun athwart the fading landscape smiles
 With most parental kindness, softly sweet,
 And delicately beautiful—a prince
 Blessing the realms where glory comes from him.
