

only for our return it is selfishness. Other mothers have been called on to endure greater sacrifices than any we can endure in this war.

"Pray for victory for right: Pray that we shall be able to do our duty faithfully, and if we fall in the cause of Christ, remember, mother dear, that 'greater love hath no man than this that he lay down his life for his friends.'

"Personally, I don't want to go back except with honour and a clear conscience of having done my duty. Life under any other circumstances after the war would not be worth while."

A comrade who fought beside Livingstone in the engagement which cost him his life, wrote, "Livingstone died a hero."
