Washington Senators Falkenberg Out of Box

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Washington won the odd game of the series from Cleveland today, 6 to 3. Falkenberg proved easy for the locals and was batted out of the box. Blanning, who relieved him, pitched winning ball, but the lead was too great to overcome. Boehling pitched his first full major league game and except for the fifth inning, when Cleveland bunched three hits, was always master. Shanks starred at the bat for Washington, his hitting figuring largely in the victory.

PHILLIES WIN FINAL FROM CHICAGO CUBS

As Brooklyn Beat St. Louis the Dodgers Move Up to Third Place.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Philadelphia won the final game of the series from Chicago today, 2 to 1, and pulled the locals down into fourth place, as the Brooklyn team defeated St. Louis and moved up a notch. The game was a pitchers' battle between Laverne and both gave an excellent exhibition of control. Chicago was saved a shut-out when Manager Evers sent Wilbur Good, utility outfielder, to bat for Laverne, and he clouted the ball to the left field fence for home runs. Zim, Lerman, third baseman for Chicago, to whom was handed one half of a $100 bill from a fan, who has promised the other half of the bill if the player can be good while playing, performed very calmly. He said he was determined to get the rest of the money. Score:

LEAFS LOSE OPENER AT J. CITY BROWN AND BRANDON IN A DUEL

Single by Knight, a Couple of Stolen Bases That Were Not Needed and Three-Base Hit by Wells Did the Business.

JERSEY CITY, N.J., June 19.—(Special to The Toronto World)—Two former big league hurlers—Buster Brown, who last year was a Boston Brave, and Pitcher, who was a Brooklyn Dodger, once a Pittsburgh Pirate—hooked up in a pitching duel in the opening game of the series at the Jersey City grounds. The Leafs, as usual the champions were at the bottom of a one to nothing count. Brown twirled an excellent game for the Kellyites, one that would win nine games out of every ten.

Then Brown settled down to business and retired the next three batters. Kelly then handed out four gifts, but got no further. Brown issued two base on balls, while Brandon handed out three. Kelly had the better of the strike-outs, Chick sending six back to the bench by the fan-out route, and Brown only two.

Tim Jordan Rejoins Team

On the advice of his physician, Big City Tim Jordan, who collected thirty-nine home runs for the champions in 1911 and 1912, refuses to play with the Leafs. Tim said that his physician told him that he had stomach trouble and advised him not to play until he was well again. The crowd at West Side Park have been very small since the Skeeters' season, but two by two they are coming back to the stadium. It was decided to postpone today's contest and double up on Sunday.
