HAMMLTON, Friday, Sept. 17.—Hamilton and Wentworth's annual fall fair opened yesterday afternoon at the Hamilton Jockey Club and was attended with much success. The affair this year is one of the best yet.

The big features of the afternoon were the ring attractions and the running races. Cupid's Dart, owned by James Hammond, took first prize in the half-mile running race; Yelsini, owned by O. Obernesser, was second, and Cohert, owned by A. Baxter, third.

Hall O., owned by E. J. Johnson, Binbrook, was an easy winer in the farmers mile and one-sixteenth trotting or pacing race; Miss Barr, owned by Charles Barr, was second, and Billy M., owned by A. Smith, Burlington, third.

George Truman's entry took first prize as the best trotters, hitched to a runabout, open only to members of the Hamilton Driving Club. George Martin's hones was second and A. Baxter's third.

R. A. Brown of Ancaster won first place for the best single turnout, with W. E. Biggar, Winona, second, and P. Cole, Freeman, third.

Prince Rupert, owned by Roy Hamilton, carried off the mounted broad jump event, while the entries of Al Wilson and James Hammond were second and third. Miss Corey, mounted on Fred Staunton's mare, was the winner in the ladies' best saddle and harness horse event, while Miss Hammond, on James Hammond's entry, was second.

The heavyweight hunters' class was won by Charles D. Jones, with James Hammond second.

Today, in addition to numerous track and ring events embracing races and judgfing of heavy draught, agricultural and general purpose horses, pony and delivery outfits, the Boy Scouts will compete in drilling and signalling for the challenge cup donated by Mrs. W. E. Sanford.

For tomorrow an exceptionally interesting program of track and ring features has been arranged, and there

Premier Asquith said the war's cost in the future would not exceed £35,000,000 a week, so far as Britain is concerned.

The investigators of the motor accident are not as zealous as they claim to be. If a reward were offered certain persons will be tempted to disclose," read the missive received by an evening paper. The writing plainly had been disguised and the address printed in ink. It had been mailed from a postbox right near where the accident occurred.
