New York has no fear of a water famine. There are now 300,000,000 gallons in the reservoirs.

Albert Shelban, of New Huntington, W. Va., in an attack of epilepsy fell into a well and was killed.

It is related as an instance of royal thrift that the queen of Denmark still mends her kingly husband's clothes.

A Cambridge, Mass., court has decided that the delivery of ice cream on Sunday is a work of necessity and charity.

The first oil well in America was discovered on a small mountain farm in Wayne county, Kentucky, in the year 1829.

Pride is a hard snake to kill entirely dead.

It never pays to cherish a fault-finding spirit.

People who have great strength are also apt to have some great weakness.

It never pays to do in private what you would be ashamed to have known in public.

There is as little mercy in stabbing with a word as there is in doing it with a knife.

A tattler's brain is like a beggar's pack; it contains little but what has been given to him.

We never knew a man who could not bear another's misfortunes perfectly like a Christian.

NO ROSE WITHOUT A THORN.

"So the strike is over," said the man who likes to discuss the news.

"So they say."

"And the men are back at work."

"Yes."

"And everything quiet."

"Yes. You seem positively sorrowful over the improvement of affairs."

"Oh, no, I aint. Of course I don't want to put my personal needs before the public welfare. Only after being able to tell your wife that you were waiting for news from Chicago, and getting her interested every midnight, it's pretty hard to have to go back to sitting up with a sick friend."

WE call the attention of our business men to the "Program" as an advertising medium. It reaches the class of people whose trade you want, and the way to get that trade is to make yourself known.

HE FELT FLATTERED.

Willie Wibbles had been talking about a jest he once made until the young woman became weary.

"I couldn't help thinking it was far fetched," she remarked.

"Oh, y a-a-s, indeed," replied Willie, delightedly. "Genuine imported ahticle, you know. I wead it in Punch."

Our passions are like convulsion fits, which make us stronger for a time, but leave us weaker forever after.

Hasty words often rankle the wound which injury gives; but soft words assuage it, forgiving cures it, and forgetting takes away the scar.

A neat bit of proverbial philosophy said to be of Japanese origin is, "Be like the tree which covers with flowers the hand that shakes it."
