

THE CANADIAN NATIONAL BUREAU OF BREEDING, LTD.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every stallion placed by the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding, must be housed in a loose box stall in a warm, dry, well lighted and comfortable stable.
2. Bureau stallions may be given sufficient exercise to keep them in condition, either in harness or under saddle, but on no account are they to be worked or raced.
3. The Bureau retains property rights in all its stallions.
4. Every man with whom a Bureau stallion is placed must agree to keep accurate account of all foals and of all mares served, in a Service Book supplied by the Bureau for such purpose.
5. The service fee shall be ten dollars to insure foal, unless farmers keeping Bureau stallions are otherwise instructed by the National Bureau.
6. All service fees shall go to the man who keeps the stallion, and in return for this he must see that the horse is well fed and well cared for.
7. It is understood that the Bureau may take back or transfer any stallion, which is not being properly cared for.
8. In the event of any stallion becoming sick or meeting with an accident, the Head Office must be notified at once.
9. Unless in case of wilful neglect or gross carelessness, a man keeping a Bureau stallion will not be held responsible for the injury or loss of the horse.
10. The Bureau will look after and arrange all insurance policies on Bureau stallions.
11. The Bureau pays all transportation on stallions to the farm selected, and delivers them at such farms in healthy condition and free from all hereditary taint. It also supplies pedigrees free of charge and other information necessary in advertising the horse.
12. The number of mares allowed to be served depends on the age of the horse, and definite details concerning this are sent out with each stallion.
13. All stallions will be changed around every four or five years, so as to prevent the get of a stallion coming back to him.
14. The Bureau has a French-Canadian Secretary, so that Quebec farmers can send in all letters in French if they so wish.
15. For the present, at least, not more than one stallion will be placed in any one county.
