

ations arose when Rogers, representing Darto accept fragm testimony as a compliant order that the district oply the defence with a estimony as a f the evidence on which th had indicted Darrow. tton, who first ruled th transcript was suffic d himself last week, ad lications by naming Mar te when the accused la ar in court to have his cu

IAN SKY and Malts AND

., 7 King St. W.

TWEEZTES

utive dates, and present in set opposite any style cost of packing, express ssary EXPENSE items), ~~~~~~~~~~~ lsewhere in this issue) ible, stamped in goid ong, durable. Besides elsewhere there are astrated by e, 16 pages of Bonus of ons and the 98C

Is in plain cloth bind-ing, stamped in gold and black; has exame paper, same illustra-tions, but all of the col-ored plates omitted. SIX upons and the Expense 48C

aturday, 9 a.m. to 2 P Street West.

She Was One of the Oldest Residents of Toronto, Hav> ing Settled Here in 1849.

Early Sunday morning Mrs. Martha

Wilson, one of the oldest residents of Toronto, passed away at the residence of her son, Dr. R. J. Wilson, 20 West Bloor-street, after a brief illness. Mrs.

Wilson was in her eighty-eighth year

ert Wilson, in 1849, took up her rest dence on a farm at the top of was then Wells' Hill, owned by the father of the late Edward Blake.

Born at Portadown, in the County of Armagh, Ireland, in 1824, Mrs. Wilson was the last surviving memoer of her family. She was a woman of superior intellectual ability and to the time of her death was well informed on all the questions of the day. For sixty years she was an ardent and devoted mem ber of the Methodist Church. and, to last took the keenest interest in all religious and charitable matters.

Her kindly nature made her the object of much reverence by the large family circle which has grown up around her Mrs. Wilson is survived by four sons and one daughter, Joseph, Rev. Dr. W., F. M., Dr. R. J. and Miss Emma Wilson. Her husband, the late Rob-ert Wilson, with whom she celebrated her golden wedding in 1896, predeceas-ed her twelve years ago. The funefal will be of a private nature to-morrow afternoon to Mount Pleasant Ceme-

For the swell train of Canada the Grand Trunk consider that it is necessary to have a publication describing the International Limited, in accord-ance with the service and equipment.

country thru which it passes.' Th book is printed on heavy satin finisher coated stock, enclosed in a four page cover, printed in gold and brown, the entire book being stippled to give it the artistic effect that was aimed at.

This train is the finest and fastes:

train in Canada, is known as the Railway Greyhound of the Dominion, and and have issued a dainty brochure de-scriptive of the train itself, and the terv.

and with her husband, the late

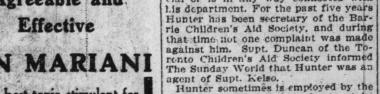

Funeral from above address on Mon-in any community qualified to vote is day, March 4, at 4.30 p.m., to Prospect buildings."

Funeral from above address on Monday, March 4, at 4.20 p.m., to Prospect Contery. Thorold papers please copy. THOMPSON-On - Saturday morning, March 2, 1912, at his residence, 8% Langdowine avenue, Toronto, Edward Thompson, belowed husband of Sarah Thompson.
Funeral from the above address, Monday, March 4, at 3 p.m., to Prospect Contery. Friends please accept this intimation.
Funeral from the above address, Monday, March 4, at 3 p.m., to Prospect Contery. Friends please accept this intimation.
Heaves Aggincourt and Thence Whitey, Etc.

Ben Johnson set the true value on and hence were unmindful of the ag environment. "He laughs at me," said gressions of the Catholic Church.

J. J. Keiso, superintendent of neglect-ed children for the province, as well as officials of his department, deny abso-lutely that Alfred Hunter, who was arrested on a charge of committing an assault on a 15-year-old girl, is an off-cial or is in any way connected with

Swats U.S. Trust

ST. PETERSBURG, March 2 .- The opposition, aided by the peasant depu-ties of all parties, in the douma to-ties of all parties, in the houma to-day; defeated the proposal providing for bounties in the manufacture in Russia of harvesters and binders. Count Uvaroff, Octobrist, described it as a Uvaroff, Octoberist, described it as a protective measure for an American trust. The International Harvester Co., trust. The International Harvester Co., an American concern, has immense works near Moscow. The peasant amendment in favor of the admission of mowing machines, duty free, was lost. M. Shigareff, Constitutional Democrat, replying to a suggestion for their free admission until a new commercial treaty with Germany had been arrang-ed, supported the suggestion, but ie-clared that the present Russo-German treaty was a worse misfortune than the war with Japan.

Sudden Changes Many Colds And Colds Are the Starting Point of Serious Diseases You Can Make Short Work of Cold by Using DR. CHASE'S STRUP LINSEED AND

TURPENTINE

Sudden changes of temperature are fatal in results. The shock to the human system is more than most peo-ple can stand, and everywhere, you hear human system is more than most peo-ple can stand, and everywhere you hear sneezing and coughing. You may be sure that some of these ordes will develop into preumonia or consumption. Others will settle on the kidneys, and result in serious disease or bring on rheumatic or bodily pains. The danger is in betting colds run on By beginning promptly with Dr. Chase s Syup of Linseed and Turpentins and taking small doses frequently you can keep the cough loose, check the inflam-mation, and soon rid the system en-tirely of the cold, and all the many possibilities for evil which if possesses. Dor't think that anything is good cough mixtures. But if you want a standard medicine of proven ment, something that you can depend on in time of sickness, you will be satisfied with Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Middren like 4t. Being composed of simple ingredients, it is particularly suited to their needs. Its enormous sales prove its effectiveness. Twenty-five cents a bobile, family size 60 cents, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co, Limited Toronto.

and when he was arrested he probably bad some official papers in his pos-session showing that he was authorized to move the girl. He is not, however, a government official.

Rev. C. H. Wray Boyle, D.D., Lake I live in an alley. His soul lives in an CRAIG @ SON Forest Iil., preached the usual uni-versity sermon yesterday. This pre- People Funeral Directors GueenSt. W. Doors West o ceder professor Huttons's tribute STOLE WILLOW PLUMES

Ross J. Craig

Est, 1896

THOMPSON-On Saturday, March 2, 1912,

aveuue, Edward Thompson.

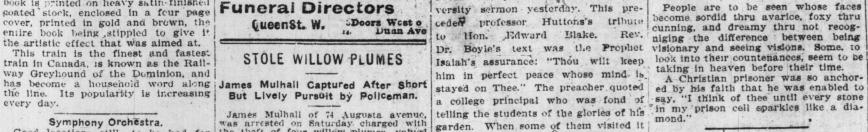

Andrew M. Craig

at his late residence, 806 Lansdowne

Funeral Monday, at 3 .m. Members of Bricklayers' Union No. 2 are kindly Symphony Orchestra. Good locations still to be had for Wednesday evening, when Wilhelm Bachaus, pianist, will be soloist. Prices, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00;

my prison cell sparkles like a dia-C. B. A. Annual Meeting.

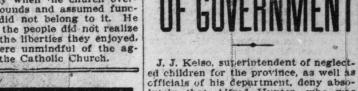

Hunter sometimes is employed by the neglected children's branch to take children from one place to another, and when he was arrested he probably had some official papers to probably that miller of a scoffing critic, "because VIN MARIANI

Whitby, Ltc. The new lakefront line of the Can-adian Pacific Railway, between Toron-to and Montreal, by way of Whitby, estand Malvern. It then keeps on a Cobourg and Belleville to Perth, will straight line crossing Sterling's farm