FORCE OF HABIT

"How use doth breed a habit in a man."
—(Two Gentlemen of Verona, Act 5.)

Habits are acquired largely through the faculty of imitation.

The young man who eats with his knife probably acquired the gentle habit by looking across the table at his father.

The man who smokes "imported" cigars has acquired an expensive habit, but the enables him to get rid of it quickly. The "NOBLEMEN" Cigar costs half the price of "imported," yet the quality is the same. Havana leaf and Cuban workmanship are the elements of "NOBLEMEN," as they are of imported, but the duty is different.

That is why "NOBLEMEN" saves the smoker 50 per cent.

Awakening of England
In Regard to Athletics

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The failure of Great Britain to secure better results at the Olympic games at Stockholm is explained today in the report of the British Olympic Committee, which says: "It was not mere specialization which enabled Sweden and the United States to do better than the British Empire. The only winner of three gold medals came from Finland. The Finnish and Decathlon were won by an American who showed quite extraordinary all-round ability. Sweden won all the points in the modern Pentathlon and obtained more points than any other nation in the whole of the games by sedulously cultivating every form of physical ability possessed by her inhabitants, and her strength and capacity as a nation have been enormously increased in the process."

The lack of serious interest in the games on the part of the British public is declared by the committee to have greatly affected the enthusiasm of the British competitors. Owing to want of funds these were deprived of opportunities for training under trainers acquainted with the best scientific methods.

It rests with the British public, says the report, whether this state of things shall be remedied in the future.

GIANTS WIN TWO
GREAT FINISHESRecruit Pitcher Enables Cincinnati to Defeat Chicago —
National League Scores and Records.

At Philadelphia—Two great finishes gave New York two games, 5 to 1 and 4 to 2. Season held the visitors safe for seven innings and Finnanan succeeded him. The visitors scored six times in the eighth. President Fogel protested this game on the ground that Umpire Rigler erred in calling out Magee in the sixth inning. Magee was being run up and down the line when he collided with Wilson, who dropped the ball. Only two hits were made off Alexander for six runs in the eighth. Snodgrass made a home run in the seventh inning and single by McCormick, Becker and Doyle, tied the score in the eighth and New York won in the ninth. Scores:

First game—R.H.E.
New York 000000000—5 1 0
Philadelphia 00010000—1 7 2
Batteries—Ames, Randall and Wilson; Alexander and Killifer.

Second game—R.H.E.
New York 00000011—2 4 3
Philadelphia 10000100—2 4 1
Batteries—Ames, Randall and Wilson; Alexander and Killifer.

Cincinnati—Cincinnati won from Chicago 4 to 1, mainly thru the superb pitching of a recruit named Gregory, recently obtained from the Ottumwa, Iowa. He allowed the visitors eight scattered hits and was effective at all critical stages. Mitchell, Grant and Tinker hit well and timely. Score:

Chicago 000010000—1 8 0
Cincinnati 00001000—4 0 1
Batteries—Reulbach, Smith and Coffey; Gregory and McLennan.

At St. Louis—Bunched hits in the eighth inning gave Pittsburgh enough runs to win from St. Louis 5 to 4. The fielding of both teams was ragged. Score: R.H.E.
Pittsburgh 10010003—6 8 2
St. Louis 10000000—2 1 1
Batteries—Ferry, Carnitz and Gibson; Brown, Geyer and Breneman.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn won from Boston in a ninth inning finish 4 to 3. With the bases tied at the beginning of the ninth, Smith walked. Daubert walked and Wheat's infield hit filled the bases. Then Hummel bounced one high in the air to Tyler, who could not get the ball to the plate in time and Smith talked. Score:

Boston 02000000—2 1 1
Brooklyn 10001000—3 1 1
Batteries—Donnelly, Tyler and Kling; Allen and Miller.

At Philadelphia—The Red Sox by defeating Washington 4 to 3 widened their lead in the series between the two clubs. Up to today Washington was the only team against which Boston had not won a majority of its games. Boston's play was interesting. Boston's wild base running cost several runs, but Cashin's pitching was uncertain and he started two Red Sox batters. O'Brien was erratic. Score:

Boston 000 120 000—3 8 3
Washington 100 002 000—3 8 3
Batteries—O'Brien and Carrigan; Cashin and Henry.

At Chicago—White and Blanding met in a pitchers' battle, Chicago taking the opening game from Cleveland, 4 to 1. White scored in the first and sixth by bunting hits. A base on balls, a single, a hit by pitched ball and an infield error enabled the visitors to score runs. Score:

Chicago 100 003 00—4 7 0
Cleveland 000 000 100—1 5 0
Batteries—White and Kuhn; Blanding and Carlsch.

At New York—By scores of 10 to 9 and 5 to 2 Philadelphia took a double-header from the New York. Philadelphia hit three New York pitchers in the first game for 23 hits. In the sixth inning they made ten runs off Caldwell and Davis on five singles, two doubles, two triples, two passes, two errors and a wild pitch. Plunk was effective for the Athletics in the second game, while the world's champions fared hard on Fisher in the third. Scores:

First game—R.H.E.
Philadelphia 004021011—10 23 4
New York 0030005 100—9 8 4

At Detroit—St. Louis, no game; rain.

Beach Canoe Club. The Beach Canoe Club Junior O. R. F. U. team will practice on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Scarborough Beach Athletic Field. The club has already had several good practices, but have been lacking coaching. F. H. Wood, an ex-Hamilton Tiger star, and late coach of Technical High School, will have charge of the team from now on and will be on the job on Saturday afternoon. The Beach are extremely fortunate in securing such a capable coach, and with the great bunch of material that they have gathered together should have one grand little team by the time the Rugby season commences. Sporting Notes Frank Baker, Connie Mack's famous home run hitter, treated his ankle yesterday and is likely to be out of the lineup. Mack will be lucky to finish in third place.

We found two letters from local fans in our mail during the slump, says The Rochester Herald. One of the letters asked for the best in exchanging McMillan and Lelwell for pitching strength. The other says McMillan is anticipated, but puts his O.K. on the sale of Lelwell, whom he says was a disturber and not working for the best interests of the team. So there you are. How is a man going to please everybody?

The competition for the newspaper trophy will be held on the Canada lawn. The first games in the competition take place on Sept. 10. Keen competition is expected this year, as the newspaper rink have been greatly strengthened by the "paper" men taking greater interest in the game every year. The first game is between World v.
